Kennedy Set For Address At Harrisburg

Democratic Rally To Aid Party Fund, Boost Candidates

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy will be hopping into the political arena tonight to open his personal part in the battle for the Democratic campaign cause.

The hop will be by helicopter to Harrisburg, Pa. Kennedy will speak at a rally aimed at raising the financial fortune of the Democratic party and the political fortunes of Democratic candidates.

It will be an outright political speech and people will pay to get in. The White House says it will be political, in contrast with what it termed nonpolitical talks the President made last month in South Dakota, Colorado and California — with Democratic candidates, and a smattering of Republicans, swarming around.

From here to the state and congressional elections of Nov. 6, there probably will be quite a few more Kennedy political safaris and speeches in key states.

Pennsylvania qualifies as a key state by reason of rousing races for the offices of U.S. senator, governor and 27 U.S. House seats.

Kennedy will be welcomed at Harrisburg by Gov. David L. Lawrence and all the Democratic contenders who can get there. These include Sen. Joseph L. Clark, trying for another term, and his close political ally, Richardson Dilworth, who resigned as mayor of Philadelphia to try for governor.

A 10-term U.S. representative, James E. Van Zandt, is the Republican challenger against Clark.

A one-term congressman, millionaire William W. Scranton, has taken on Dilworth. Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower pitched in for Scranton with a speech in Scranton last Friday.

Pennsylvania has 16 Republicans, 14 Democrats in the House. But reapportionment trimmed the state's 30 House seats to 27.

Illinois is the only state other than Pennsylvania that definitely is staked out for a presidential campaign visit. Democratic Rep. Sidney R. Yates will get a hand from Kennedy in trying to toss Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen out of the Senate.

Eisenhower was out in Illinois, too, last week, getting in some licks for Dirksen. Kennedy is to appear at Springfield and Chicago Friday, Oct. 19.

Dresden Man Injured As 2 Attack Suddenly

Beaten by two unidentified men, a Dresden Ave. resident told police Wednesday night he wasn't certain whether the muggers were attempting to rob him.

Sullivan told police he was at Dresden Ave. and Smith St. shortly before 9 last night when two men jumped from a car and began beating him fiercely about the head and body.

Sullivan was taken to the hospital by police and then released.

38 Hurt As Bus Rams Into Truck

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — A bus-truck collision on the fog-shrouded Ohio Turnpike early today resulted in injuries to 38 persons.

Thirteen of the injured were hospitalized but none was reported in serious condition.

Summit County sheriff's deputies said a Continental Trailways bus with 45 aboard rammed into the rear of a van - type truck on the toll road about two miles east of Hudson.

Both vehicles were westbound and rolled off the road and down an embankment. The bus remained upright but the truck turned over in a field near Hudson-Aurora Road. It was foggy at the time, deputies said.

Deputies said the bus was en route from Pittsburgh to Chicago and several of the passengers were recently discharged servicemen. Thirty-eight persons on the bus were injured, including the bus driver, George Wheeler, 28, of Pittsburgh.

Ten of the injured were admitted to Robinson Memorial Hospital in Ravenna and three to St. Thomas Hospital in Akron. Hospital authorities said they suffered multiple injuries and all were listed in satisfactory condition.

Hospitalized at Robinson Hospital were George Nelson, 20, Harrisburg, Pa.; Herman Green, 65, San Francisco, and his wife, Frances (age unavailable) Henry Thomas, 65, Cleveland; Celia Hoffman, 59, Baltimore; Glenn Thomas, 32, Mitchellville, Iowa; Hazel Constantides, 62, Chicago; Louise Hentevenroder, 72, Fort Collins, Colo.; Rossetta Greening, 62, Kent, England, and Wheeler.

Admitted to St. Thomas were Mrs. Margaret Dennis-Leigh, 22, of Oakland, Calif.; Iris Leevander, 20, of Freekeva, Sweden, and Helen Verkerk, 63, of Fontana, Calif.

The truck driver, Lee Plyler, 50, of Custard, Pa., was treated for minor injuries and released.

The accident happened five miles west of where a Greyhound bus-truck turnpike collision on Aug. 17 killed two passengers and injured 29 others.

6 To Receive Police Post Test Sept. 27

Six and possibly seven applicants will take a Municipal Civil Service examination Sept. 27 to make up a new eligibility list for patrolmen.

The commission said today it has notified six applicants to report for the test at 8 p. m. next Thursday at City Hall, and has asked a seventh to appear for an interview when it will decide whether he will be permitted to take the exam.

The commission said the six to take the test are Howard Eldon Frontz, 921 Kent St.; Karl William Samples, 1827 Allison St.; John A. Walsh, 137 W. 2nd St.; James William Buckley, 945 Lisbon St.; Arthur Ira Peters, 934 Kent St., and David Keith Mumaw of Iris Ave.

Eleven filed applications to take the test but the others were eliminated during the screening.

A similar test was given Aug. 15 but none of the applicants scored a passing grade. A patrolman's post pays $355 monthly.

There are three vacancies on the department now and another is anticipated when the commission certifies the name of the top patrolman in a promotional examination it conducted to fill a police lieutenant's post.

However, the commission said it still is awaiting an opinion concerning seniority credit from Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper before making a final determination.

The commission decided to delay a decision on the grades of nine applicants because the question of how to compute seniority credit would affect the outcome of the test.

By law an officer is entitled to a maximum of 10 points depending on the length of service but the law does not make clear if the seniority points are to be credited to the officer whether or not his original grade is a passing score.

Nine patrolmen competed in the test two weeks ago to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Thomas A. Walker on July 30. Patrolman Charles E. (Bill) Tice is serving as acting lieutenant.

Temperature May Dip Near Freezing Tonight

For the first time since early last spring, that nasty word "frost" appears in the weather forecast.

The Ohio weatherman said there may be light frost inland from Lake Erie for Northern Ohio, with a near-freezing temperature range of 34 to 40 degrees. Freezing is 32.

The preview of autumn began developing Wednesday afternoon when the cold front moved across the Tri-State District.

Edwin Copeland, U. S. weather observer at Millport, had an official low of 34 degrees overnight, Greater Pittsburgh Airport recorded 36 and downtown East Liverpool had 42 at 6 a. m. There were unconfirmed reports of frost in this area last night. It is more likely tonight, however, as skies will be clear. But it figures — autumn's due officially Sunday at 8:35 a. m.

Guido Troops Converge On Army Rebels

Argentine President Gives Command To Put Down Rebellion

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Troops from the countryside converged on this capital today under orders from President Jose Maria Guido to crush an uprising by army rebels.

Guido received Gen. Juan Carlos Ongania, a rebel leader, Wednesday night. Ongania had come to explain the rebel position. Instead he was handed an ultimatum to end the uprising at once.

Defying the ultimatum, Ongania returned to the rebel stronghold of Campo de Mayo in a Buenos Aires suburb, vowing to fight to the last to enforce the rebel demand that Argentina return to democratic rule.

The rebels accused the military command of moving toward military dictatorship.

Guido then ordered a joint operation against the rebels by the army, air force and navy.

But the air force commander, Brig. Cayo Antonio Alsina, said his forces would not take part.

No decision was announced by the navy. However, Campo de Mayo said in a communique navy planes dropped flares on tanks advancing from Magdalena to support the rebels.

Calling the president a virtual prisoner of the Army high command, Ongania said Guido acted with "astonishingly tragic celerity" in laying down an order "for forces whose objective always has been to defend him from the coups and treasons suffocating him."

The insurgents, strongly entrenched at Campo de Mayo, claimed support of the mechanized cavalry and some infantry units in other parts of the country.

False Pretense Case Jury Convicts Man

A Beaver County court jury deliberated five hours Tuesday before returning a guilty verdict about 3 p. m. against Herman Whitney, 37, of Pittsburgh on a charge of attempting to obtain money by false pretenses from the Pallow family of Midland.

Police said he had tried to obtain $150 from the mother of Ted Pallow whom Whitney met at Western Penitentiary. Sentencing court will be held next Wednesday for those found guilty during this term of court.

Tavern Men Rap Chester Councilmen

Spokesman Claims 3 In Council Trying To Close City's Bars

A spokesman for Chester's 13 taverns Wednesday night accused three Chester councilmen of trying to "close the taverns," while another declared tavern operators with federal liquor stamps obtain them "to protect themselves when customers bring in bottles."

James LaScola, operator of the Turf Bar, read a statement on behalf of the Chester Tavern Owners Association, criticizing Council for policies instituted in the past three months since they took office.

Reads Statement

His statement was read after a lively exchange concerning federal liquor stamps in Chester between Councilman Wayne Hutton and Les Kirschler, operator of Les' Tavern.

Hutton led into the query on the liquor stamps near the end of last night's meeting, reading a Review story concerning issuance of 36 such stamps in Hancock County, including six in Chester.

Hutton pointed out sale of liquor is illegal under West Virginia and city regulations, but Hancock ranked second in West Virginia for the number of such stamps.

Kirschler, who is listed as a stamp holder, said he obtains the federal stamps in event some "customer brings in an open bottle of liquor and an agent finds it on his premises."

Hutton said, "What I want to know is if there are violations of these kinds, have there been any efforts made to check them?"

Says Report Due

Councilman Donald Chaney said, "We were supposed to get a report from the mayor."

John Ludovici, operator of the Holiday Lounge, asked when were the stamps issued. Hutton replied, "It doesn't say, but you should know, one was issued to the Holiday Lounge."

He went on, "If this condition exists in Chester, I believe there

On Arms Force In Cuba

3 Congress Units Give Warning To Havana, Moscow

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Foreign Affairs Committee joined a Senate panel today in a warning to "the rulers of Havana and Moscow" that the United States will not tolerate a military force in Cuba capable of endangering U.S. security.

The House group unanimously voted to send to the House for action a resolution identical with one approved by two Senate committees, acting jointly.

The warning that the United States will not tolerate the development of a security threat in Cuba was contained in the report of the Senate committees.

Such a threat "could have the gravest possible consequences," and the United States "will not flinch from these consequences," declared the armed forces and foreign relations committees.

The warning was contained in a report to the Senate which votes today on a Cuban policy resolution drafted by the committees.

The report carried unanimous, bipartisan endorsement of the group's 33 members.

The resolution declares the United States will use force if necessary to resist the advance of communism in this hemisphere.

The House Foreign Affairs Committee meets this morning to go over final language of a similar resolution before submitting it to the House for a vote.

The resolution — triggered by congressional concern over the military buildup of Cuba—is expected to be approved today by both houses. It then will go to President Kennedy for his signature.

The resolution, said the Senate report, will make clear "the essential unity of purpose, not only of the Congress, but of the President and the American people as well."

The report said "existing military capabilities in Cuba do not endanger the security of the United States" and the resolution is designed to "make sure they do not in the future."

"It is of critical importance that this point be clearly understood by the people of the United States and by the rulers of Havana and Moscow: If the Soviet Union attempts to install, or aid in the installation in Cuba of military force capable of endangering the security of the United States, it will create a situation which the United States will not tolerate and which could have the gravest possible consequences," the report said.

Gives Him Powers To Cut Tariffs

Opens Way To U.S. Partnership With European Market

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has hailed Senate passage of the foreign trade bill which gives him revolutionary powers to slash or eliminate tariffs.

By a 78-8 vote Wednesday, the Senate approved the measure that would open the way to an economic partnership with the booming European Common Market.

The House passed a similar version earlier. House and Senate conferees must reconcile the differences and work out a final version of the legislation.

This is not expected to be a difficult task since both versions contain the major powers the President requested.

The Senate vote on the measure —which heads Kennedy's legislative priority list—gave the administration its biggest victory so far in Congress.

Kennedy, described by an aide as elated, congratulated the Senate for its "significant action."

"It is the strongest trade bill since the original legislation was passed . . . and the new legislation gives us the opportunity to develop closer and more harmonious trade relations with the common market and other nations throughout the world," he said.

Both advocates and opponents agreed that the trade expansion bill is the most far-reaching trade legislation since the 1934 Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act, the nation's basic tariff law, was enacted.

Republicans and Democrats joined in praising the measure.

Opponents, mainly Republicans, denounced the bill as the greatest grant of power ever handed a chief executive in the trade field.

The bill would extend the reciprocal trade act to June 30, 1967 —the longest extension ever provided.

At the heart of the bill is provision for the United States to work out economic agreements with the six-nation common market.

Driver Hurt When Train Rams Truck

Steubenville Man's Coal Vehicle Hit On Irondale Crossing

The driver of a coal truck escaped serious injury when his vehicle was struck by a diesel freight train on the Irondale crossing of the Pennsylvania Railroad this morning about 7:45.

Larry Honaker, 29, of Steubenville suffered injuries of the arms, elbow and ribs. He was examined at City Hospital and released.

The truck was heavily damaged and the superstructure of the engine was ripped by the impact. Officials said the crossing was shrouded in fog.

The truck was loaded with coal, which was spilled on the southside of the tracks. The vehicle was knocked clear of the tracks.

The freight, east - bound from Crestline to Conway, was delayed for about two hours. An acetylene torch was used to cut away parts of the superstructure which were protruding from the side and front.

The Wintersville State Highway Patrol and the Jefferson County Sheriff's office were called to investigate.

The train was split to allow traffic to proceed on East Ave. in Irondale. The truck was headed into town.

Honaker drives for Garnett Nuzum of Steubenville R. D. 1.

9 Of Chester Dirt Streets Due Seal Coat

Work On Sections To Be Completed Within 3 Weeks

Seal coats for sections of at least nine Chester dirt streets, to be completed within three weeks, were authorized by Council Wednesday night.

Carl Graham, chairman of the street committee, said the Ohio Tar & Asphalt Co. of Canton had submitted an offer of $2,677 for nine streets, and urged the project be approved.

After discussion, Council agreed to have the firm perform the listed work, along with some others at a cost not to exceed $3,200—the amount of money appropriated for new equipment.

Graham said the planned purchase of a roller and blacktop spreader from a Midland area man, authorized by Council earlier, had been rejected by the street committee because the equipment was not in adequate condition.

Graham recommended that the money appropriated for equipment be used for the street work, pointing out the dirt streets, most of them on hillsides, are the areas from which debris is washed down onto Carolina Ave. and they are in need of surfacing.

He said the surfacing would take about a week and would probably be done when the firm's crews return to the East Liverpool area at the end of the month.

Streets listed for work, with cost estimates, include Louisiana Ave. from 2nd to 3rd Sts., $226; Charles St. from George St. to 3rd St., $165; Montana Ave., $566; Oakwood St. from Charles to Montana, $176; Indiana from Montana to 2nd, $172.

Negotiations End Without Progress

The strike at the Globe Brick Co. of Newell, that began Aug. 31, will apparently continue with no new negotiations set after Wednesday's parley with the union failed to produce any agreement.

Winston A. Porter, Globe's president, said in a statement:

"The representatives of the Globe Brick Co. and Local 647 of the International Brick and Clayworkers Union had another negotiating session Wednesday at the Hotel Wilk.

"The company reported that unfortunately no progress appears to have been made toward an agreement to replace that which expired Aug. 31.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy will be hopping into the political arena tonight to open his personal part in the battle for the Democratic campaign cause.

Kennedy will be welcomed at Harrisburg by Gov. David L. Lawrence and all the Democratic contenders who can get there. These include Sen. Joseph L. Clark, trying for another term, and his close political ally, Richardson Dilworth, who resigned as mayor of Philadelphia to try for governor.

A 10-term U.S. representative, James E. Van Zandt, is the Republican challenger against Clark.

A one-term congressman, millionaire William W. Scranton, has taken on Dilworth. Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower pitched in for Scranton with a speech in Scranton last Friday.

Pennsylvania has 16 Republicans, 14 Democrats in the House. But reapportionment trimmed the state's 30 House seats to 27.

Illinois is the only state other than Pennsylvania that definitely is staked out for a presidential campaign visit. Democratic Rep. Sidney R. Yates will get a hand from Kennedy in trying to toss Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen out of the Senate.

Eisenhower was out in Illinois, too, last week, getting in some licks for Dirksen. Kennedy is to appear at Springfield and Chicago Friday, Oct. 19.

38 Hurt As Bus Rams Into Truck

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — A bus-truck collision on the fog-shrouded Ohio Turnpike early today resulted in injuries to 38 persons.

Thirteen of the injured were hospitalized but none was reported in serious condition.

Summit County sheriff's deputies said a Continental Trailways bus with 45 aboard rammed into the rear of a van - type truck on the toll road about two miles east of Hudson.

Both vehicles were westbound and rolled off the road and down an embankment. The bus remained upright but the truck turned over in a field near Hudson-Aurora Road. It was foggy at the time, deputies said.

Deputies said the bus was en route from Pittsburgh to Chicago and several of the passengers were recently discharged servicemen. Thirty-eight persons on the bus were injured, including the bus driver, George Wheeler, 28, of Pittsburgh.

Ten of the injured were admitted to Robinson Memorial Hospital in Ravenna and three to St. Thomas Hospital in Akron. Hospital authorities said they suffered multiple injuries and all were listed in satisfactory condition.

Hospitalized at Robinson Hospital were George Nelson, 20, Harrisburg, Pa.; Herman Green, 65, San Francisco, and his wife, Frances (age unavailable) Henry Thomas, 65, Cleveland; Celia Hoffman, 59, Baltimore; Glenn Thomas, 32, Mitchellville, Iowa; Hazel Constantides, 62, Chicago; Louise Hentevenroder, 72, Fort Collins, Colo.; Rossetta Greening, 62, Kent, England, and Wheeler.

Admitted to St. Thomas were Mrs. Margaret Dennis-Leigh, 22, of Oakland, Calif.; Iris Leevander, 20, of Freekeva, Sweden, and Helen Verkerk, 63, of Fontana, Calif.

The truck driver, Lee Plyler, 50, of Custard, Pa., was treated for minor injuries and released.

The accident happened five miles west of where a Greyhound bus-truck turnpike collision on Aug. 17 killed two passengers and injured 29 others.

6 To Receive Police Post Test Sept. 27

Six and possibly seven applicants will take a Municipal Civil Service examination Sept. 27 to make up a new eligibility list for patrolmen.

The commission said today it has notified six applicants to report for the test at 8 p. m. next Thursday at City Hall, and has asked a seventh to appear for an interview when it will decide whether he will be permitted to take the exam.

The commission said the six to take the test are Howard Eldon Frontz, 921 Kent St.; Karl William Samples, 1827 Allison St.; John A. Walsh, 137 W. 2nd St.; James William Buckley, 945 Lisbon St.; Arthur Ira Peters, 934 Kent St., and David Keith Mumaw of Iris Ave.

Eleven filed applications to take the test but the others were eliminated during the screening.

A similar test was given Aug. 15 but none of the applicants scored a passing grade. A patrolman's post pays $355 monthly.

There are three vacancies on the department now and another is anticipated when the commission certifies the name of the top patrolman in a promotional examination it conducted to fill a police lieutenant's post.

However, the commission said it still is awaiting an opinion concerning seniority credit from Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper before making a final determination.

The commission decided to delay a decision on the grades of nine applicants because the question of how to compute seniority credit would affect the outcome of the test.

By law an officer is entitled to a maximum of 10 points depending on the length of service but the law does not make clear if the seniority points are to be credited to the officer whether or not his original grade is a passing score.

Nine patrolmen competed in the test two weeks ago to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Thomas A. Walker on July 30. Patrolman Charles E. (Bill) Tice is serving as acting lieutenant.

On Arms Force In Cuba

3 Congress Units Give Warning To Havana, Moscow

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Foreign Affairs Committee joined a Senate panel today in a warning to "the rulers of Havana and Moscow" that the United States will not tolerate a military force in Cuba capable of endangering U.S. security.

The House group unanimously voted to send to the House for action a resolution identical with one approved by two Senate committees, acting jointly.

The warning that the United States will not tolerate the development of a security threat in Cuba was contained in the report of the Senate committees.

Such a threat "could have the gravest possible consequences," and the United States "will not flinch from these consequences," declared the armed forces and foreign relations committees.

The warning was contained in a report to the Senate which votes today on a Cuban policy resolution drafted by the committees.

The report carried unanimous, bipartisan endorsement of the group's 33 members.

The resolution declares the United States will use force if necessary to resist the advance of communism in this hemisphere.

The House Foreign Affairs committee meets this morning to go over final language of a simular resolution before submitting it to the House for a vote.

The resolution — triggered by congressional concern over the military buildup of Cuba—is expected to be approved today by both houses. It then will go to President Kennedy for his signature.

The resolution, said the Senate report, will make clear "the essential unity of purpose, not only of the Congress, but of the President and the American people as well."

The report said "existing military capabilities in Cuba do not endanger the security of the United States" and the resolution is designed to "make sure they do not in the future."

"It is of critical importance that this point be clearly understood by the people of the United States and by the rulers of Havana and Moscow: If the Soviet Union attempts to install, or aid in the installation in Cuba of military force capable of endangering the security of the United States, it will create a situation which the United States will not tolerate and which could have the gravest possible consequences," the report said.

Driver Hurt When Train Rams Truck

Steubenville Man's Coal Vehicle Hit On Irondale Crossing

The driver of a coal truck escaped serious injury when his vehicle was struck by a diesel freight train on the Irondale crossing of the Pennsylvania Railroad this morning about 7:45.

Larry Honaker, 29, of Steubenville suffered injuries of the arms, elbow and ribs. He was examined at City Hospital and released.

The truck was heavily damaged and the superstructure of the engine was ripped by the impact. Officials said the crossing was shrouded in fog.

The truck was loaded with coal, which was spilled on the southside of the tracks. The vehicle was knocked clear of the tracks.

The freight, east - bound from Crestline to Conway, was delayed for about two hours. An acetylene torch was used to cut away parts of the superstructure which were protruding from the side and front.

The Wintersville State Highway Patrol and the Jefferson County Sheriff's office were called to investigate.

The train was split to allow traffic to proceed on East Ave. in Irondale. The truck was headed into town.

Honaker drives for Garnett Nuzum of Steubenville R. D. 1.

9 Of Chester Dirt Streets Due Seal Coat

Work On Sections To Be Completed Within 3 Weeks

Seal coats for sections of at least nine Chester dirt streets, to be completed within three weeks, were authorized by Council Wednesday night.

Carl Graham, chairman of the street committee, said the Ohio Tar & Asphalt Co. of Canton had submitted an offer of $2,677 for nine streets, and urged the project be approved.

After discussion, Council agreed to have the firm perform the listed work, along with some others at a cost not to exceed $3,200—the amount of money appropriated for new equipment.

Graham said the planned purchase of a roller and blacktop spreader from a Midland area man, authorized by Council earlier, had been rejected by the street committee because the equipment was not in adequate condition.

Graham recommended that the money appropriated for equipment be used for the street work, pointing out the dirt streets, most of them on hillsides, are the areas from which debris is washed down onto Carolina Ave. and they are in need of surfacing.

He said the surfacing would take about a week and would probably be done when the firm's crews return to the East Liverpool area at the end of the month.

Streets listed for work, with cost estimates, include Louisiana Ave. from 2nd to 3rd Sts., $226; Charles St. from George St. to 3rd St., $165; Montana Ave., $566; Oakwood St. from Charles to Montana, $176; Indiana from Montana to 2nd, $172.

Gives Him Powers To Cut Tariffs

Opens Way To U.S. Partnership With European Market

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has hailed Senate passage of the foreign trade bill which gives him revolutionary powers to slash or eliminate tariffs.

By a 78-8 vote Wednesday, the Senate approved the measure that would open the way to an economic partnership with the booming European Common Market.

The House passed a similar version earlier. House and Senate conferees must reconcile the differences and work out a final version of the legislation.

This is not expected to be a difficult task since both versions contain the major powers the President requested.

The Senate vote on the measure —which heads Kennedy's legislative priority list—gave the administration its biggest victory so far in Congress.

Kennedy, described by an aide as elated, congratulated the Senate for its "significant action."

"It is the strongest trade bill since the original legislation was passed . . . and the new legislation gives us the opportunity to develop closer and more harmonious trade relations with the common market and other nations throughout the world," he said.

Both advocates and opponents agreed that the trade expansion bill is the most far-reaching trade legislation since the 1934 Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act, the nation's basic tariff law, was enacted.

Republicans and Democrats joined in praising the measure.

Opponents, mainly Republicans, denounced the bill as the greatest grant of power ever handed a chief executive in the trade field.

The bill would extend the reciprocal trade act to June 30, 1967 —the longest extension ever provided.

At the heart of the bill is provision for the United States to work out economic agreements with the six-nation common market.

Globe Strike Will Continue

Negotiations End Without Progress

The strike at the Globe Brick Co. of Newell, that began Aug. 31, will apparently continue with no new negotiations set after Wednesday's parley with the union failed to produce any agreement.

Winston A. Porter, Globe's president, said in a statement:

"The representatives of the Globe Brick Co. and Local 647 of the International Brick and Clayworkers Union had another negotiating session Wednesday at the Hotel Wilk.

"The company reported that unfortunately no progress appears to have been made toward an agreement to replace that which expired Aug. 31.

"The company stated that it had continued insurance coverage for its employes at its expense from the expiration date to the present time, although the employes were not working and the company was under no obligation to do so.

"The company also said that it would be willing to make ad-

should be some search and seizure warrants issued."

Mayor Harry Abrams, smiling, said, "You fellows investigated all the taverns." Hutton answered, "I did go to some. I was delayed geting in for a while; I guess they wanted to see if I was a resident of the town."

Stocking Liquor?

Referring to the stamps, Councilman Carl Graham asked if the tavern owners were stocking up on liquor in expectation of passage of a proposed liquor sale amendment up for vote in November.

Kirschler said, "If a state man finds an open bottle in a tavern, we are liable; if there is a federal stamp on one which someone has brought in, he can't say. We do it to protect ourselves. We find the bottles in the restrooms every morning."

Chaney asked, "You don't sell them?"

Both Kirschler and LaScola answered they did not. "You tell me how to stop them from bringing bottles in, and I'll do it 100 per cent," Kirschler declared.

Hutton asked the mayor if any search warrants had been obtained. "Not from me," he replied.

Police Chief Queried

Hutton then asked Police Chief Lennens, "Have you asked for warrants?"

"I have," Lennens said, "It's been discussed three or four times." "Did you get any?" "Not yet," he answered.

Councilman Charles Kology commented, "The Review gives out all this publicity about the town — you fellows say Chester is in bad shape. I say it's a good, little town," adding he felt Kirschler's explanation of the stamps was correct.

Mayor Abrams said the search warrants should be prepared by Solicitor Ruth Cox Turner, saying any he prepared may not hold up in court.

Information Available

Mrs. Turner said she had all the forms and information on the laws and affidavits, and is prepared to instruct the police officers on the matter.

Robert Smith of Pyramus St. asked if it were not true that any citizen can obtain a warrant and sign it. Mrs. Turner said anyone can sign an affidavit against a potential violator, but it has to be served by the police.

A motion was introduced to adjourn but LaScola stood up and said he had a statement he wished to read as spokesman for the tavern operators who, he said, represent 30 per cent of the businesses in the city.

He commented on the "great amount of money in the general fund" from which Council took $100 for eventual investigation of illegal activities in the city, "when you could get such information from any man on the street for nothing."

More Attendance Asked

"Council is supposed to represent the people, not themselves," he went on, declaring more people should come to the meetings.

"The city should have five councilmen and a mayor; instead, we have three councilmen and no mayor," he read, apparently referring to Councilmen Hutton, Chaney and Graham in evident majority control of Council policy. He also said, "Secret meetings at Chaney's Service Station should cease."

"The police have been taken from the mayor, the former police chief fired, the new police chief removed from duties with Waterford Park when he has need for money to feed his family, and now you are trying to close down the 13 taverns which bring in $1,495 each year in license revenue."

Follows East Liverpool

"You are following the footsteps of East Liverpool. They used to have plenty of money, then they brought in an outsider, paid him $9,000 a year, and now East Liverpool is a ghost town, and you want to do the same with Chester.

"What have you done to help Chester? You have bought a street sweeper to move dirt from the curbs into the middle of the street, you have kept the firemen from using bingo for income, you have a city drivers license, and now you are talking about parking meters. Why not bring in an income tax?

"I ask you to take stock. The Edwin Knowles pottery is liquidated, meaning 450 people out of jobs; if you shut down the taverns, there will be 50 more to make an even 500."

Bring In Industry

"Try to bring in industry. Give the town back to the people, give the police back to the mayor, give Council back to Council," he concluded.

"What wino wrote that?" Graham asked. "It was no wino, it was I," LaScola replied.

Graham declared, "There are no secret meetings at Chaney's. The only city business done is done across this table."

LaScola and Kirschler said, "We can see you up there." Graham pointed out he has been a gasoline customer at the service station, and that if Mayor Abrams and Councilman Kology are seen in front of the VFW it doesn't mean they are having a meeting.

Denies Closing Step

Chaney said, "We are not trying to close any taverns which are operating legally. . ."

"We are all operating illegally —I mean legally," LaScola countered.

There was a hubbub of talk and laughter, and Mayor Abrams called for order and a second to the move to adjourn, which followed, and the meeting ended.

Patrol Holds Ex-Area Man

A former Hancock County man was being held today at the County Jail at Lisbon on a drunken driving charge filed by the Ohio Highway Patrol while officers continue a check on a possible parole violation.

Wilbert William Howell, 33, was taken into custody yesterday afternoon about 3:30 on the Y. & O. Rd. by a patrolman who said he was driving a Michigan auto but had no registration card.

The Lisbon post received a complaint about a drunken driver on Route 30 about 3 p. m., and an officer saw Howell's parked car at Rock Camp about 3:30.

When Howell returned to the auto, he headed down the Y. & O. Rd. and was pursued. Officers said he was released from prison in Indiana in June, but had not reported to his parole officer. He had been sentenced for auto theft.

Howell said he had borrowed the auto he was in yesterday from a friend in Michigan where he was working with a carnival.

Howell formerly had resided in the New Cumberland area. He said he was en route to East Liverpool.

Voters Given Reminder On Registration

The Columbiana County Election Board today reminded East Liverpool voters the deadline for registration for the Nov. 6 general election is Wednesday at 10 p. m.

Although the deadline is only a week away, only "a mere handful" have qualified since the first of the year, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, said.

The city now has 10,044 qualified voters, a gain of only 48 since Jan. 1 when there were 9,996 on the rolls after the board completed its year-end check, eliminating 434 who were removed for failure to vote within two years, death or change of address.

To facilitate voter registration, the board will maintain continuous 12-hour service at its W. 6th St. office Monday through Wednesday.

The office will be open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday and Tuesday and until 10 p.m. deadline on Wednesday, O'Hanlon said.

Neighborhood registration centers will be operated Wednesday only at Pleasant Heights School, North Side fire station and Louis-James Store on Mulberry St. to aid those unable to reach the main office, he added. Branch hours will be 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. and from 5 to 10 p. m.

East Liverpool is the only county subdivision where registration is required, O'Hanlon emphasized.

Once a city voter has registered, his registration does not have to be renewed unless he hasn't voted at least once in the last two years; has changed his address in the city since registering or the name has been changed by marriage or court action.

A new resident is qualified to vote after he has been in Ohio for a year and in the county and precinct for 40 days.

Those who will observe their 21st birthday on or before Nov. 6 also may register to vote, O'Hanlon explained.

"What wino wrote that?" Graham asked. "It was no wino, it was I," LaScola replied.

Graham declared, "There are no secret meetings at Chaney's. The only city business done is done across this table."

LaScola and Kirschler said, "We can see you up there." Graham pointed out he has been a gasoline customer at the service station, and that if Mayor Abrams and Councilman Kology are seen in front of the VFW it doesn't mean they are having a meeting.

Denies Closing Step

Chaney said, "We are not trying to close any taverns which are operating legally. . ."

"We are all operating illegally —I mean legally," LaScola countered.

There was a hubbub of talk and laughter, and Mayor Abrams called for order and a second to the move to adjourn, which followed, and the meeting ended.

The post made a donation to the Wellsville Post 70 for its rebuilding program.

Joseph Hall and Richard Webb, seniors at Wells High School, who attended Boys State at Jacksons Mill, W. Va., this summer, under the auspices of the local post, reported on their experiences. They also expressed their appreciation.

Next meeting is Oct. 3.

Patrol Holds Ex-Area Man

A former Hancock County man was being held today at the County Jail at Lisbon on a drunken driving charge filed by the Ohio Highway Patrol while officers continue a check on a possible parole violation.

Wilbert William Howell, 33, was taken into custody yesterday afternoon about 3:30 on the Y. & O. Rd. by a patrolman who said he was driving a Michigan auto but had no registration card.

The Lisbon post received a complaint about a drunken driver on Route 30 about 3 p. m., and an officer saw Howell's parked car at Rock Camp about 3:30.

When Howell returned to the auto, he headed down the Y. & O. Rd. and was pursued. Officers said he was released from prison in Indiana in June, but had not reported to his parole officer. He had been sentenced for auto theft.

Howell said he had borrowed the auto he was in yesterday from a friend in Michigan where he was working with a carnival.

Howell formerly had resided in the New Cumberland area. He said he was en route to East Liverpool.

Voters Given Reminder On Registration

The Columbiana County Election Board today reminded East Liverpool voters the deadline for registration for the Nov. 6 general election is Wednesday at 10 p. m.

Although the deadline is only a week away, only "a mere handful" have qualified since the first of the year, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, said.

The city now has 10,044 qualified voters, a gain of only 48 since Jan. 1 when there were 9,996 on the rolls after the board completed its year-end check, eliminating 434 who were removed for failure to vote within two years, death or change of address.

To facilitate voter registration, the board will maintain continuous 12-hour service at its W. 6th St. office Monday through Wednesday.

The office will be open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday and Tuesday and until 10 p.m. deadline on Wednesday, O'Hanlon said.

Neighborhood registration centers will be operated Wednesday only at Pleasant Heights School, North Side fire station and Louis-James Store on Mulberry St. to aid those unable to reach the main office, he added. Branch hours will be 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. and from 5 to 10 p. m.

East Liverpool is the only county subdivision where registration is required, O'Hanlon emphasized.

Once a city voter has registered, his registration does not have to be renewed unless he hasn't voted at least once in the last two years; has changed his address in the city since registering or the name has been changed by marriage or court action.

A new resident is qualified to vote after he has been in Ohio for a year and in the county and precinct for 40 days.

Those who will observe their 21st birthday on or before Nov. 6 also may register to vote, O'Hanlon explained.

Planning For The Next Report

East Liverpool's traffic and driver safety problems have been outlined anew in the report of the National Safety Council for 1961, showing accidents not only can kill and maim but can add up to a $1.2 million bill.

The Council's 10 recommendations are in a large part justifiable and worthy. Some could be met with a minimum of cost and effort, others already have been tried, while the rest are beyond the present financial reach of the community.

Those who commute to work to Midland or Hancock County and elsewhere and those who travel to the downtown area long have recognized the limitations imposed by some narrow and angular streets and certain awkward intersections.

But street improvements are continuing and state highway projects being completed or in the planning stages promise even greater travel facilities within and through the city.

Traffic control also is being bettered. The recent revision of a signal system at Jefferson and W. 6th Sts. was a long overdue method of speeding vehicular flow with less hazard.

Yet, the need for more improved signal systems, for larger and more visible signs, for expanded enforcement measures remain, as does a continuing study of bettering motor transportation in East Liverpool.

Mayor Bert Goodballet's appointment of a new traffic commission should provide an approach to handling some problems. It is hoped that serious work will be undertaken by the commission on these matters and that ouncil will give full consideration of recommendations presented.

Continued development of parking facilities, advances in traffic handling, stricter court attitudes toward infractions of the law and various street improvements already have demonstrated the city's concern for the economic and safety factors of the ever growing amount of cars and trucks.

But we need no independent survey to point out the need for further improvement to meet the auto-powered nature of our civilization, centered on suburban homes, drive-in facilities and tremendous investment in roads, car purchases and vehicle maintenance.

The Safety Council's 10 recommendations and proposals from the new traffic commission and other knowledgeable authorities must get the full attention of the city administration.

The time has come to "think big", what with the new Freeway, renewed interest of merchants and Council in parking facilities and other factors which cannot be ignored.

Those sincerely interested in bettering traffic safety and in bettering East Liverpool are looking forward to the next report of the National Safety Council.

Reserve Champ In Massachusetts

They're predicting that Edward M. Kennedy will roll over his Republican opponent for senator from Massachusetts in the November election the same way he crushed his Democratic opponent in the primary on Tuesday.

They may be right.

The voting in Massachusetts has turned into a clinical demonstration of what pays off in politics. Candidate Kennedy has a magic combination of youth, good looks, money, organization and family connections. His primary opponent, Edward J. McCormack Jr., no slouch in appearance himself, not yet middle-aged and a political insider by virtue of being state attorney general, lacked money and organization. He was snowed under. The McCormacks are all right, but they're not Kennedys.

In the Republican primary, an able candidate of mature years, Rep. Laurence Curtis, running for re-election, was licked by another inexperienced youngster, George Cabot Lodge, son of former U.S. Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge, who ran with Richard Nixon on the presidential ticket in 1960. Rep. Curtis also had an insider's advantage, with more than 30 years' experience in city, state and national office. He never had a chance.

There is a market in politics for new faces, especially if the faces are young and handsome. Political experts discussed with cold objectivity the sex appeal of the candidates in Massachusetts as if they were trying out for the movies. They said the women's vote would make Kennedy a shoo-in.

The argument that candidates should run on merit, not on famous names, fell flat. The complaint that candidates were spending too much money fell flat. The claim that the public owed support to officials who had served it well in the past fell flat.

By hindsight, the youngest and some think the most eye-appealing of the Kennedys was unbeatable. Likewise by hindsight, Rep. Curtis didn't have a chance to beat the youngest of the equally famous Lodges, who also has family fame, youth and good looks but may run a little short of money and organization when he runs against the Kennedy fortune and its one-for-all-and-all-for-one doctrine.

If Teddy Kennedy can make it big in Massachusetts in November, the Kennedy family will have a reserve champion even more redoubtable than the redoubtable Bobby, whose political accomplishments do not yet include being a winning candidate.

Firmness Without Intervention

The Kennedy administration apparently has made Chester Bowles its mouthpiece on Cuban policy. In a speech at Pittsburgh at the beginning of the week, Bowles denounced extremists and said those who demand military intervention are "expressing a frustration which all of us feel."

"Such men," he declared, "are persuaded that life is based on power and that in the use of power anything goes". "Then this summation: "If under present circumstances we were to follow the urging of the extremists and attack Cuba, we would do irreparable harm to the cause of freedom."

This is a tricky, dangerous line of reasoning. It assumes there is no other way to assert power than to attack. Then by rejecting the possibility of attack it seems to reject the possibility of doing anything at all to counteract the military intervention of the Soviet Union in Cuba.

It would not be necessary to attack Cuba to oppose Soviet intervention.

It would be necessary only to demonstrate that the United States is in no mood to knuckle under the intervention; this could be done by naval blockade.

Whether the blockade was assisted by other American states would be their decision to make, but there is reason to believe many would want to help. And there is every likelihood that if a blockade were in effect there would be cessation of Cuban cargo-carrying in the ships of U.S. allies.

Mr. Bowles is President Kennedy's special adviser on African and Asian affairs. It is not clear how he gets into the Cuban act. It's clear, though, that his line of reasoning is specious. The United States can be firm about Cuba without going to war.

It is not only in my imagination that we are creating a new nobility of science—the spacemen. Eventually, members of this highly regarded class of citizens will branch out and seek public office. They will be eligible for appointive positions. Some will be tapped for big business opportunities. And eventually some fool will sneer that they have their heads in the clouds.

If we could be sure of enough time I'd bet the communists louse up Cuba as greviously as they've loused up everything else they tried to do. That's the worst thing about their system—it doesn't work.

Perhaps I missed it, but what happened to the U.S. marshal who doped off and let Soblen start the knife work that caused all the complications, including the most bizarre of all, which is the suspicion that Soblen was killed.

There is no way to think clearly about Sunday closing laws other than to separate the problem into its two component parts—the desire of some merchants to operate on less than a seven-day week and the desire of some religionists to preserve their idea of Sunday by force.

Now that Constitution Day is over again, I still want to know how many people ever sat down to read the Constitution all the way through, especially the amendments spelling out the rights that constitute human freedom.

There's talk of a second Emancipation Proclamation to commemorate the first one issued Sept. 22, 1862. Wouldn't it be better to stand on the first one and urge everybody to take it to heart?

I am not among those who write off the United Nations as a failure year by year because it doesn't settle anything. I think of all the other movements that would have to be written off—movements that I believe in even if they never succeed, like calendar reform.

This and That

The power of sight is one of the greatest wonders of nature. Some 10 times per second, or 36,000 times an hour, an image can be received by one's eyes, interpreted in any of 150 colors, flashed to the brain and made the basis of instant command to any of a thousand muscles of the body.

The reason bluing is used to correct the yellowish tinge in white clothes is that blue and yellow are complementary colors which, when mixed, produce white.

A Treacherous Wake

Reds Spy On Top U.S. Leaders

By Victor Riesel

Someday the Department of Justice will disclose what it knows of the U.S.S.R. blackmail operations inside the U.S. When this story finally breaks it will be revealed that the agents of Chairman Khrushchev have attempted to infiltrate the private lives of our most prominent national leaders. Not one of them has been immune—not the President of the United States nor those who might become president.

Victor Riesel

One such Soviet espionage cell, exposed by the Justice Department and the FBI the other day, had among its special assignments the accumulation of information on Gov. Nelson Rockefeller and Richard Nixon.

It was a most ambitious operation. In addition to blackmail, this special Soviet cell was under instructions to capture a congressman. This could be done by blackmail or by combining blackmail with the selection of a young politico and then nursing him from some local post into the Congress of the U. S.

Once in Congress the political leader could be threatened into attempting to penetrate the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

I report this as absolute fact. It is the full story behind the operations of the cell made up of two United Nations officials — Yuri A. Mishukov, until recently translator in the U.N. Office of Conference Services and Yuri V. Zaitsev, also until recently a political affairs officer in the Political and Security Council Affairs Department.

ALL THROUGH their U. N. employ they were Soviet espionage agents. The FBI knew it. These were the men who approached a young Repulican lawyer, Richard Allen Flink.

The 27-year-old Flink, who went immediately to the FBI, told me the Soviet agents were especially interested in the Republican party and its leaders. Flink became a voluntary undercover agent for the FBI. The spies wanted to know all about the internal stresses and forces in the GOP. They were persistent in their pursuit of the smallest detail which might affect the political careers of Rockefeller and Nixon.

Early last June they became interested in the Conservative Party, Inc., development in New York State.

Flink told me that Mishukov asked the voluntary undercover man to meet him in Churchill's Restaurant in lower Manhattan. Flink was asked for a detailed report on the new party. Flink said he'd have it in a few weeks.

TWO DAYS before his deadline, he read this column's full story on the Conservatives. He retyped it. He showed it to his FBI contact. The bureau approved it.

Then in a Brass Rail restaurant in Brooklyn, Flink turned it over. Three weeks later Zaitsev told Flink it was a "succinct, clear and good job."

Thank you, Comrade Zaitsev. And lucky for Mr. Flink, Zaitsev did not clear with Tass, which sends the column regularly to Moscow.

Flink, a young Republican now running for the State Assembly, is considered a comer in politics and a potential congressman. He let the Soviet agents believe they were nursing him, financing him and directing his policy — as they did at least one other New Yorker, now dead.

But they wanted their money's worth.

"They wanted to know," Flink told me some hours after Attorney General Robert Kennedy disclosed the operation the other night, "a lot about the background and internal workings of key government agencies, especially those dealing with secret industrial production and installations.

"They spent a lot of time on that."

FLINK, who learned his discipline during his Marine training, from which he was honorably discharged, cannot yet talk publicly. When he does he will bear out J. Edgar Hoover's charges that a vast section of the Soviet bloc diplomats and U.N. employes in this country are trained espionage agents.

But it can be reported, for example, that from July 1, 1960, to June 30, 1961, Soviet representatives spied by "holidaying" in at least 15 or our states.

Here are the states covered by Soviet agents: Illinois, Wisconsin, Utah, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Colorado, Texas (all of it), North Carolina, California, Oregon, Washington (and points en route).

East Coast states near Washington D.C., and New York City were reserved by the Soviets for "picnics" near installations. Wherever there is an event of military or scientific interest, there, too, is a "vacationing" Soviet representative.

In July 1960, the 169th Squadron of the National Guard sponsored an air show at Peoria, Ill. This included an exhibition of jet plane precision flying by the U. S. Air Force. Enthralled spectators included two "holidaying" Soviet attaches from Washington, D. C.

IN FEBRUARY 1961, two other Soviet attaches stopped in Salt Lake City long enough to attend a conference of the American Rocket Society. In April 1961, a Soviet official, accompanied by his wife, turned up at the meetings of the Federation of American Biologists in Atlantic City.

And then there was Sergei C. Zhdanov, chief engineer of Amtorg (Soviet Purchasing agency in the U.S.). Contrary to specific restrictions of our State Department, he attended a symposium in Chicago. Here he sat in on a closed discussion of U. S. industrial defense production, at which machine tools used to make highly-classified equipment were on display.

If we don't close these Soviet outposts in the U.S., at least let us insist that the Soviets permit us to set up some throughout the U.S.S.R.

Eroding Freedom

By David Lawrence

Union Shop Seen Limit On Workers' Rights

Freedom of the individual in his beliefs is the boast of America. The schoolbooks teach it. Our representatives at the U.N. proclaim it. Our politicians preach it. Yet when the test comes as between human rights and the desire to favor a special group, hyprocrisy occasionally takes over in Washington.

David Lawrence

President Kennedy is an able and conscientious public servant, but, as a champion of human rights, he sometimes emphasizes only those "civil rights" which will get him votes and does not risk a fight for basic principles that might lose him the votes of a pressure group.

A case in point is his outright advocacy of a system which compels a man to join a union to keep a job. Mr. Kennedy sees nothing wrong with this form of enslavement. True liberals disagree with him. For if in free America a man's fundamental beliefs today are subject to coercion — and even penalty — then the outcry for civil rights and individual freedom of belief has a hollow sound.

THE PRINCIPLE of compulsory unionization, for instance, came up at Mr. Kennedy's news conference on Sept. 13. What the President said attracted little attention because, history tells us, as human rights are eroded, there is, unfortunately, a tendency to accept the doctrine that "The end justifies the means."

The question arose in connection with the current dispute bepanies engaged in the manufacture of machinery for air-space projects. Four leading aerospace companies, especially Lockheed, have rejected the basic demand of the labor unions for a so-called union shop. Mr. Kennedy was asked for his reaction. His reply, as recorded by tape, was as follows:

"Well, in the first place, most major industrial companies or industries in the United States have accepted the union shop many years ago — the steel industry, the auto industry, the aluminum companies, other basic industries. The union shop is part of collective bargaining. Particularly under the terms suggested by Dr. Taylor, a two-thirds vote — people do not have to join the union unless — to get the job.

"After they've come to work, if it is the opinion of a large majority of the members, then they would join the union. This, as I say, has been acceptable for many years to many companies which are even larger than the ones that are involved."

THE PRESIDENT went on to say that he hoped the companies would accept the proposal "because, if there is a strike, the responsibility would be very clear, I think, to the American people for such an action."

Thus the President of the United States says, in effect, that a labor union may extort an advantage for itself — even though it violates human rights — and that, rather than bear the cost of a strike or its inconvenience, the American people must surrender to expediency and forego the principle of human freedom.

Now, the union shop is, to be sure, a part of the process of collective bargaining. So are blackmail and coercion and the threat to destroy an employer's business if he doesn't accept the union's demands.

Recently the country has been hearing a lot about the third party — the public — and much has been said about the "public interest."

Does a form of compulsory unionization become right just because company after company has been forced in the past by coercive threats of strikes and financial loss to give in to union demands?

Hasn't the President argued often that freedom of belief and freedom of conscience are guaranteed under "the law of the land"?

The right of an individual to get a job and keep it without sacrificing his beliefs — by being forced to join any organization in whose purposes he does not believe — is inherent in the articles of the constitution.

THE ARGUMENT of the labor unions is that the majority of the employes in a plant is the boss and can tell each worker to join or be fired. The worker isn't required to be a member when he applies, but if he gets the job, he must decide within 30 or 60 days whether to join the union or lose his job.

The employer, under a contract with the union, becomes an unwilling partner in the conspiracy to deprive the worker of his right not to join a private organization. Nineteen states by law forbid compulsory unionization of any kind. These are called "right to work" laws.

Recognizing the injustice of compulsion, some unions have asked only for the "agency shop," which means that the non-union employe renders financial support by regular payments that help cover the cost of the bargaining done in his behalf — the equivalent of union dues. But the worker doesn't have to join the union.

Even this partial removal of the flaw in the compulsory union system was not espoused by President Kennedy when he talked last week to his news conference. For most of the labor leaders are against the "agency shop," too.

Mr. K's New Frontiers

By Marguerite Higgins

Although it is upsetting to the conventional wisdom prevailing in Washington about Premier Khrushchev's life and hard times, there are some diplomatic mavericks who, undeterred by their lack of impact in high places, persist in the thesis that the Soviet leader has good reason to feel that he is not doing badly for a country boy.

Much has been made of Soviet Russia's agricultural difficulties, the challenge of the Common Market, and the pressures to which Mr. Khrushchev is allegedly subjected by the bad old Stalinists, in and out of Russia.

Granted all these realties, they do not obscure the substantial gains made by Mr. Khrushchev in the cold hard strategic facts of geography and international politics.

It is, for instance, Mr. Khrushchev who can factually boast to his cronies, Stalinist and non-Stalinist alike, that he has established and consolidated the only new frontiers brought into being on the face of the globe during the past two years.

THE FIRST new frontier of course runs right through the middle of Berlin where one and a half million people who were formerly free to breathe the air of West Berlin any time they chose (and go to its shops, attend its concerts, buy its newspapers, engage in its political arguments have been enslaved by The Wall.

The second new frontier is of course in Cuba where (according to the latest figures) some 10,000 Soviet bloc soldiers, sailors and technicians are helping Castro install "defensive" missiles.

The third new frontier appears to be dawning in Laos where with American attention diverted elsewhere, there seems little will to resist a creeping Communist take over.

Some of Mr. Khrushchev's accomplishments have been more subtle, than geographic, although they would be properly appreciated in the Soviet bloc where the daily measure of Western responses, or lack of responses, is charted as carefully as a sputnik in flight.

It must have been a source of satisfaction in Moscow to have Mr. Kennedy agree with Mr. Khrushchev's prior public pronouncement that "the Monroe Doctrine is dead" at least to the extent that the President indicated that it would be unjustifiable to apply it to Cuba under present circumstances.

Before the New Frontier theoreticians began thinking up rationales for the exceptions to the rule, the Monroe Doctrine held it to be a threat to this hemisphere for an extra-continental power to control the political institutions of any American State.

But according to the New Frontier, Moscow's domination of Cuba is tolerable, so long as the Soviet military build up is only defensive. Thus, the Monroe Doctrine can be violated so long as the violation is purely defensive.

Planning For The Next Report

East Liverpool's traffic and driver safety problems have been outlined anew in the report of the National Safety Council for 1961, showing accidents not only can kill and maim but can add up to a $1.2 million bill.

The Council's 10 recommendations are in a large part justifiable and worthy. Some could be met with a minimum of cost and effort, others already have been tried, while the rest are beyond the present financial reach of the community.

Those who commute to work to Midland or Hancock County and elsewhere and those who travel to the downtown area long have recognized the limitations imposed by some narrow and angular streets and certain awkward intersections.

But street improvements are continuing and state highway projects being completed or in the planning stages promise even greater travel facilities within and through the city.

Traffic control also is being bettered. The recent revision of a signal system at Jefferson and W. 6th Sts. was a long overdue method of speeding vehicular flow with less hazard.

Yet, the need for more improved signal systems, for larger and more visible signs, for expanded enforcement measures remain, as does a continuing study of bettering motor transportation in East Liverpool.

Mayor Bert Goodballet's appointment of a new traffic commission should provide an approach to handling some problems. It is hoped that serious work will be undertaken by the commission on these matters and that ouncil will give full consideration of recommendations presented.

Continued development of parking facilities, advances in traffic handling, stricter court attitudes toward infractions of the law and various street improvements already have demonstrated the city's concern for the economic and safety factors of the ever growing amount of cars and trucks.

But we need no independent survey to point out the need for further improvement to meet the auto-powered nature of our civilization, centered on suburban homes, drive-in facilities and tremendous investment in roads, car purchases and vehicle maintenance.

The Safety Council's 10 recommendations and proposals from the new traffic commission and other knowledgeable authorities must get the full attention of the city administration.

The time has come to "think big", what with the new Freeway, renewed interest of merchants and Council in parking facilities and other factors which cannot be ignored.

Those sincerely interested in bettering traffic safety and in bettering East Liverpool are looking forward to the next report of the National Safety Council.

Reserve Champ In Massachusetts

They're predicting that Edward M. Kennedy will roll over his Republican opponent for senator from Massachusetts in the November election the same way he crushed his Democratic opponent in the primary on Tuesday.

They may be right.

The voting in Massachusetts has turned into a clinical demonstration of what pays off in politics. Candidate Kennedy has a magic combination of youth, good looks, money, organization and family connections. His primary opponent, Edward J. McCormack Jr., no slouch in appearance himself, not yet middle-aged and a political insider by virtue of being state attorney general, lacked money and organization. He was snowed under. The McCormacks are all right, but they're not Kennedys.

In the Republican primary, an able candidate of mature years, Rep. Laurence Curtis, running for re-election, was licked by another inexperienced youngster, George Cabot Lodge, son of former U.S. Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge, who ran with Richard Nixon on the presidential ticket in 1960. Rep. Curtis also had an insider's advantage, with more than 30 years' experience in city, state and national office. He never had a chance.

There is a market in politics for new faces, especially if the faces are young and handsome. Political experts discussed with cold objectivity the sex appeal of the candidates in Massachusetts as if they were trying out for the movies. They said the women's vote would make Kennedy a shoo-in.

The argument that candidates should run on merit, not on famous names, fell flat. The complaint that candidates were spending too much money fell flat. The claim that the public owed support to officials who had served it well in the past fell flat.

By hindsight, the youngest and some think the most eye-appealing of the Kennedys was unbeatable. Likewise by hindsight, Rep. Curtis didn't have a chance to beat the youngest of the equally famous Lodges, who also has family fame, youth and good looks but may run a little short of money and organization when he runs against the Kennedy fortune and its one-for-all-and-all-for-one doctrine.

If Teddy Kennedy can make it big in Massachusetts in November, the Kennedy family will have a reserve champion even more redoubtable than the redoubtable Bobby, whose political accomplishments do not yet include being a winning candidate.

Firmness Without Intervention

The Kennedy administration apparently has made Chester Bowles its mouthpiece on Cuban policy. In a speech at Pittsburgh at the beginning of the week, Bowles denounced extremists and said those who demand military intervention are "expressing a frustration which all of us feel."

"Such men," he declared, "are persuaded that life is based on power and that in the use of power anything goes". "Then this summation: "If under present circumstances we were to follow the urging of the extremists and attack Cuba, we would do irreparable harm to the cause of freedom."

This is a tricky, dangerous line of reasoning. It assumes there is no other way to assert power than to attack. Then by rejecting the possibility of attack it seems to reject the possibility of doing anything at all to counteract the military intervention of the Soviet Union in Cuba.

It would not be necessary to attack Cuba to oppose Soviet intervention.

It would be necessary only to demonstrate that the United States is in no mood to knuckle under the intervention; this could be done by naval blockade.

Whether the blockade was assisted by other American states would be their decision to make, but there is reason to believe many would want to help. And there is every likelihood that if a blockade were in effect there would be cessation of Cuban cargo-carrying in the ships of U.S. allies.

Mr. Bowles is President Kennedy's special adviser on African and Asian affairs. It is not clear how he gets into the Cuban act. It's clear, though, that his line of reasoning is specious. The United States can be firm about Cuba without going to war.

Purely Personal

It may be early to start hoping, but I want to find out the inside story of Fidel Castro when he gets the fatal come-uppance that awaits everybody who tries to hold the Russian bear by the tail.

Each autumn I am reminded that one of the most eye-filling beauties of nature is a scattering of bright fallen leaves on an expanse of green turf at twilight.

It is not only in my imagination that we are creating a new nobility of science—the spacemen. Eventually, members of this highly regarded class of citizens will branch out and seek public office. They will be eligible for appointive positions. Some will be tapped for big business opportunities. And eventually some fool will sneer that they have their heads in the clouds.

If we could be sure of enough time I'd bet the communists louse up Cuba as greviously as they've loused up everything else they tried to do. That's the worst thing about their system—it doesn't work.

Perhaps I missed it, but what happened to the U.S. marshal who doped off and let Soblen start the knife work that caused all the complications, including the most bizarre of all, which is the suspicion that Soblen was killed.

There is no way to think clearly about Sunday closing laws other than to separate the problem into its two component parts—the desire of some merchants to operate on less than a seven-day week and the desire of some religionists to preserve their idea of Sunday by force.

I am always impressed when professional athletes change clubs and blossom into sensational performers, like Milt Plum, now doing everything well for the Detroit Lions though a year ago for the Cleveland Browns he was thought by many observers to be inadequate.

I think tomatoes taste better now than at any other time in tomato-eating season.

Now that Constitution Day is over again, I still want to know how many people ever sat down to read the Constitution all the way through, especially the amendments spelling out the rights that constitute human freedom.

It is one thing to explain to jumpy civilians that sonic booming caused by military planes is part of the nation's defense. It is going to be another thing to explain sonic booming when supersonic jet liners become a nuisance. People won't stand for it when it's done for profit.

There's talk of a second Emancipation Proclamation to commemorate the first one issued Sept. 22, 1862. Wouldn't it be better to stand on the first one and urge everybody to take it to heart?

I am not among those who write off the United Nations as a failure year by year because it doesn't settle anything. I think of all the other movements that would have to be written off—movements that I believe in even if they never succeed, like calendar reform.

This and That

The power of sight is one of the greatest wonders of nature. Some 10 times per second, or 36,000 times an hour, an image can be received by one's eyes, interpreted in any of 150 colors, flashed to the brain and made the basis of instant command to any of a thousand muscles of the body.

The reason bluing is used to correct the yellowish tinge in white clothes is that blue and yellow are complementary colors which, when mixed, produce white.

A Treacherous Wake

Reds Spy On Top U.S. Leaders

By Victor Riesel

Someday the Department of Justice will disclose what it knows of the U.S.S.R. blackmail operations inside the U.S. When this story finally breaks it will be revealed that the agents of Chairman Khrushchev have attempted to infiltrate the private lives of our most prominent national leaders. Not one of them has been immune—not the President of the United States nor those who might become president.

Victor Riesel

One such Soviet espionage cell, exposed by the Justice Department and the FBI the other day, had among its special assignments the accumulation of information on Gov. Nelson Rockefeller and Richard Nixon.

It was a most ambitious operation. In addition to blackmail, this special Soviet cell was under instructions to capture a congressman. This could be done by blackmail or by combining blackmail with the selection of a young politico and then nursing him from some local post into the Congress of the U. S.

Once in Congress the political leader could be threatened into attempting to penetrate the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

I report this as absolute fact. It is the full story behind the operations of the cell made up of two United Nations officials — Yuri A. Mishukov, until recently translator in the U.N. Office of Conference Services and Yuri V. Zaitsev, also until recently a political affairs officer in the Political and Security Council Affairs Department.

ALL THROUGH their U. N. employ they were Soviet espionage agents. The FBI knew it. These were the men who approached a young Republican lawyer, Richard Allen Flink.

The 27-year-old Flink, who went immediately to the FBI, told me the Soviet agents were especially interested in the Republican party and its leaders. Flink became a voluntary undercover agent for the FBI. The spies wanted to know all about the internal stresses and forces in the GOP. They were persistent in their pursuit of the smallest detail which might affect the political careers of Rockefeller and Nixon.

Early last June they became interested in the Conservative Party, Inc., development in New York State.

Flink told me that Mishukov asked the voluntary undercover man to meet him in Churchill's Restaurant in lower Manhattan. Flink was asked for a detailed report on the new party. Flink said he'd have it in a few weeks.

TWO DAYS before his deadline, he read this column's full story on the Conservatives. He retyped it. He showed it to his FBI contact. The bureau approved it.

Then in a Brass Rail restaurant in Brooklyn, Flink turned it over. Three weeks later Zaitsev told Flink it was a "succinct, clear and good job."

Thank you, Comrade Zaitsev. And lucky for Mr. Flink, Zaitsev did not clear with Tass, which sends the column regularly to Moscow.

Flink, a young Republican now running for the State Assembly, is considered a comer in politics and a potential congressman. He let the Soviet agents believe they were nursing him, financing him and directing his policy — as they did at least one other New Yorker, now dead.

But they wanted their money's worth.

"They wanted to know," Flink told me some hours after Attorney General Robert Kennedy disclosed the operation the other night, "a lot about the background and internal workings of key government agencies, especially those dealing with secret industrial production and installations.

"They spent a lot of time on that."

FLINK, who learned his discipline during his Marine training, from which he was honorably discharged, cannot yet talk publicly. When he does he will bear out J. Edgar Hoover's charges that a vast section of the Soviet bloc diplomats and U.N. employes in this country are trained espionage agents.

But it can be reported, for example, that from July 1, 1960, to June 30, 1961, Soviet representatives spied by "holidaying" in at least 15 or our states.

Here are the states covered by Soviet agents: Illinois, Wisconsin, Utah, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Colorado, Texas (all of it), North Carolina, California, Oregon, Washington (and points en route).

East Coast states near Washington D.C., and New York City were reserved by the Soviets for "picnics" near installations. Wherever there is an event of military or scientific interest, there, too, is a "vacationing" Soviet representative.

In July 1960, the 169th Squadron of the National Guard sponsored an air show at Peoria, Ill. This included an exhibition of jet plane precision flying by the U. S. Air Force. Enthralled spectators included two "holidaying" Soviet attaches from Washington, D. C.

IN FEBRUARY 1961, two other Soviet attaches stopped in Salt Lake City long enough to attend a conference of the American Rocket Society. In April 1961, a Soviet official, accompanied by his wife, turned up at the meetings of the Federation of American Biologists in Atlantic City.

And then there was Sergei C. Zhdanov, chief engineer of Amtorg (Soviet Purchasing agency in the U.S.). Contrary to specific restrictions of our State Department, he attended a symposium in Chicago. Here he sat in on a closed discussion of U. S. industrial defense production, at which machine tools used to make highly-classified equipment were on display.

If we don't close these Soviet outposts in the U.S., at least let us insist that the Soviets permit us to set up some throughout the U.S.S.R.

Eroding Freedom

By David Lawrence

Union Shop Seen Limit On Workers' Rights

Freedom of the individual in his beliefs is the boast of America. The schoolbooks teach it. Our representatives at the U.N. proclaim it. Our politicians preach it. Yet when the test comes as between human rights and the desire to favor a special group, hyprocrisy occasionally takes over in Washington.

David Lawrence

President Kennedy is an able and conscientious public servant, but, as a champion of human rights, he sometimes emphasizes only those "civil rights" which will get him votes and does not risk a fight for basic principles that might lose him the votes of a pressure group.

A case in point is his outright advocacy of a system which compels a man to join a union to keep a job. Mr. Kennedy sees nothing wrong with this form of enslavement. True liberals disagree with him. For if in free America a man's fundamental beliefs today are subject to coercion — and even penalty — then the outcry for civil rights and individual freedom of belief has a hollow sound.

THE PRINCIPLE of compulsory unionization, for instance, came up at Mr. Kennedy's news conference on Sept. 13. What the President said attracted little attention because, history tells us, as human rights are eroded, there is, unfortunately, a tendency to accept the doctrine that "The end justifies the means."

The question arose in connection with the current dispute bepanies engaged in the manufacture of machinery for air-space projects. Four leading aerospace companies, especially Lockheed, have rejected the basic demand of the labor unions for a so-called union shop. Mr. Kennedy was asked for his reaction. His reply, as recorded by tape, was as follows:

"Well, in the first place, most major industrial companies or industries in the United States have accepted the union shop many years ago — the steel industry, the auto industry, the aluminum companies, other basic industries. The union shop is part of collective bargaining. Particularly under the terms suggested by Dr. Taylor, a two-thirds vote — people do not have to join the union unless — to get the job.

"After they've come to work, if it is the opinion of a large majority of the members, then they would join the union. This, as I say, has been acceptable for many years to many companies which are even larger than the ones that are involved."

THE PRESIDENT went on to say that he hoped the companies would accept the proposal "because, if there is a strike, the responsibility would be very clear, I think, to the American people for such an action."

Thus the President of the United States says, in effect, that a labor union may extort an advantage for itself — even though it violates human rights — and that, rather than bear the cost of a strike or its inconvenience, the American people must surrender to expediency and forego the principle of human freedom.

Now, the union shop is, to be sure, a part of the process of collective bargaining. So are blackmail and coercion and the threat to destroy an employer's business if he doesn't accept the union's demands.

Recently the country has been hearing a lot about the third party — the public — and much has been said about the "public interest."

Does a form of compulsory unionization become right just because company after company has been forced in the past by coercive threats of strikes and financial loss to give in to union demands?

Hasn't the President argued often that freedom of belief and freedom of conscience are guaranteed under "the law of the land"?

The right of an individual to get a job and keep it without sacrificing his beliefs — by being forced to join any organization in whose purposes he does not believe — is inherent in the articles of the constitution.

THE ARGUMENT of the labor unions is that the majority of the employes in a plant is the boss and can tell each worker to join or be fired. The worker isn't required to be a member when he applies, but if he gets the job, he must decide within 30 or 60 days whether to join the union or lose his job.

The employer, under a contract with the union, becomes an unwilling partner in the conspiracy to deprive the worker of his right not to join a private organization. Nineteen states by law forbid compulsory unionization of any kind. These are called "right to work" laws.

Recognizing the injustice of compulsion, some unions have asked only for the "agency shop," which means that the non-union employe renders financial support by regular payments that help cover the cost of the bargaining done in his behalf — the equivalent of union dues. But the worker doesn't have to join the union.

Even this partial removal of the flaw in the compulsory union system was not espoused by President Kennedy when he talked last week to his news conference. For most of the labor leaders are against the "agency shop," too.

Mr. K's New Frontiers

By Marguerite Higgins

Although it is upsetting to the conventional wisdom prevailing in Washington about Premier Khrushchev's life and hard times, there are some diplomatic mavericks who, undeterred by their lack of impact in high places, persist in the thesis that the Soviet leader has good reason to feel that he is not doing badly for a country boy.

Much has been made of Soviet Russia's agricultural difficulties, the challenge of the Common Market, and the pressures to which Mr. Khrushchev is allegedly subjected by the bad old Stalinists, in and out of Russia.

Granted all these realties, they do not obscure the substantial gains made by Mr. Khrushchev in the cold hard strategic facts of geography and international politics.

It is, for instance, Mr. Khrushchev who can factually boast to his cronies, Stalinist and non-Stalinist alike, that he has established and consolidated the only new frontiers brought into being on the face of the globe during the past two years.

THE FIRST new frontier of course runs right through the middle of Berlin where one and a half million people who were formerly free to breathe the air of West Berlin any time they chose (and go to its shops, attend its concerts, buy its newspapers, engage in its political arguments have been enslaved by The Wall.

The second new frontier is of course in Cuba where (according to the latest figures) some 10,000 Soviet bloc soldiers, sailors and technicians are helping Castro install "defensive" missiles.

The third new frontier appears to be dawning in Laos where with American attention diverted elsewhere, there seems little will to resist a creeping Communist take over.

Some of Mr. Khrushchev's accomplishments have been more subtle, than geographic, although they would be properly appreciated in the Soviet bloc where the daily measure of Western responses, or lack of responses, is charted as carefully as a sputnik in flight.

It must have been a source of satisfaction in Moscow to have Mr. Kennedy agree with Mr. Khrushchev's prior public pronouncement that "the Monroe Doctrine is dead" at least to the extent that the President indicated that it would be unjustifiable to apply it to Cuba under present circumstances.

Before the New Frontier theoreticians began thinking up rationales for the exceptions to the rule, the Monroe Doctrine held it to be a threat to this hemisphere for an extra-continental power to control the political institutions of any American State.

But according to the New Frontier, Moscow's domination of Cuba is tolerable, so long as the Soviet military build up is only defensive. Thus, the Monroe Doctrine can be violated so long as the violation is purely defensive.

Wellsville Club Hears Judge On 'Constitution'

The history of the Constitution was reviewed by Judge Samuel Chertoff of East Liverpool Municipal Court in an address Tuesday noon at the Hotel Wilk for the Wellsville Kiwanis Club.

He compared the Constitution with two other historical documents — the Ten Commandments of the Bible and the Magna Carta —declaring they are the three most important in the history of the world.

The judge said every school child should learn the Preamble to the Constitution and the national anthem. He said in his own way of thinking, the authorities of the Constitution represented the greatest accumulation of brains the world has evern seen or ever will see.

He pointed out only 11 changes have been made to the documents since the original 10 Bill of Rights.

Sixteen were present. Richard Grills, president, conducted business. Plans were completed for a peanut sale at the Wellsville football game Friday night.

The Board of Directors held a special meeting and approved two new members. They are the Rev. Arden Beck of the First Methodist Church and A. J. Dalrymple of Ideal Chevrolet.

New officers will be elected at the meeting next Tuesday noon.

Retarded Child Group Will Hold Special Meeting

Facing dissolution because of lack of interest, the North Hancock County Council for Retarded Children has scheduled a special meeting tonight at 8 in the Newell American Legion home.

Letters asking participation in the council's activities and meetings have been sent to all parents of 15 youngsters enrolled in a special class at the Jefferson School.

Anthony F. LaNeve, president, explained that no meetings have been held for many months because of low interest. The council's annual membership campaign has not been held this year.

The council, in addition to other functions, finances the cost of transportation from home to school for children in the special class.

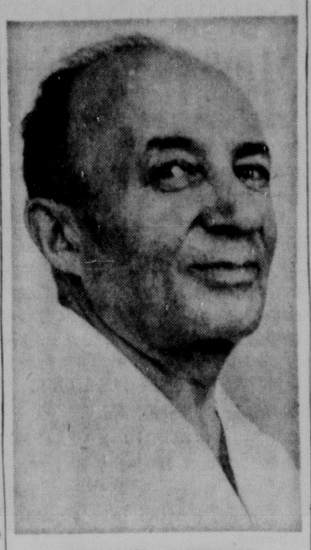

Unless further interest is demonstrated and attendance increases for meetings, the council will be forced to dissolve and parents will be required to pay transportation costs for their youngsters next year to the special class, the group said.

Westinghouse, Union Sift Ideas In Strike

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Westinghouse Corp. officials and union representatives were to take a look today at each other's ideas for settling the four-day strike at the big West Side Columbus appliance plant.

Federal mediator George Bell called both sides back into session this morning after an early afternoon recess Wednesday. He said then that neither side had yielded much but at least had agreed to review the other's suggestions.

The strike began Monday morning when Local 746, International Union of Electrical Workers, went out in protest over changing of about 18 jobs from incentive rates to straight time.

School Head Talks To PTA

Lester Bickel, new principal, compared the schools of the past with those of the present in a talk to the McKinley Parent - Teacher Association in Wellsville Monday night.

Overdrafts Cited In Late Mahoning Auditors' Books

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State examiners said today that books of the late Mahoning County Auditor Charles B. Rayburn showed overdrafts of nearly $1 million.

The report to State Auditor James A. Rhodes listed these cash overdrafts: general fund $506,383, motor vehicle and gas tax $161,598, poor relief $220,846, surplus commodity $10,007 and real property assessment fund $84,506.

The total came to $983,342 for the period between Nov. 3, 1959, through 1961.

Examiners Donald C. Clarke and Virgil J. VanOss criticized the way numerous bills were paid, allowances for travel expenses and personal use of county automobiles by office employees among other things in their report.

Rayburn's successor, Stephen R. Olenick, is not liable for the overdraft but officials said action could be brought against Rayburn's estate.

Tentative plans were discussed for a public ham supper with the ways and means committee in charge. The date will be announced.

Miss Elizabeth Coleman, principal, announced the association has purchased film strips and records for classrooms. The unit has allotted $25 for purchase of recreational equipment for the children in the lower grades and for those who bring their lunches.

It was announced that study sessions on PTA manual will be held Oct. 3 in the Lincoln School in Lisbon.

Wellsville Club Hears Judge On 'Constitution'

The history of the Constitution was reviewed by Judge Samuel Chertoff of East Liverpool Municipal Court in an address Tuesday noon at the Hotel Wilk for the Wellsville Kiwanis Club.

He compared the Constitution with two other historical documents — the Ten Commandments of the Bible and the Magna Carta —declaring they are the three most important in the history of the world.

The judge said every school child should learn the Preamble to the Constitution and the national anthem. He said in his own way of thinking, the authorities of the Constitution represented the greatest accumulation of brains the world has evern seen or ever will see.

He pointed out only 11 changes have been made to the documents since the original 10 Bill of Rights.

Sixteen were present. Richard Grills, president, conducted business. Plans were completed for a peanut sale at the Wellsville football game Friday night.

The Board of Directors held a special meeting and approved two new members. They are the Rev. Arden Beck of the First Methodist Church and A. J. Dalrymple of Ideal Chevrolet.

New officers will be elected at the meeting next Tuesday noon.

Retarded Child Group Will Hold Special Meeting

Facing dissolution because of lack of interest, the North Hancock County Council for Retarded Children has scheduled a special meeting tonight at 8 in the Newell American Legion home.

Letters asking participation in the council's activities and meetings have been sent to all parents of 15 youngsters enrolled in a special class at the Jefferson School.

Anthony F. LaNeve, president, explained that no meetings have been held for many months because of low interest. The council's annual membership campaign has not been held this year.

The council, in addition to other functions, finances the cost of transportation from home to school for children in the special class.

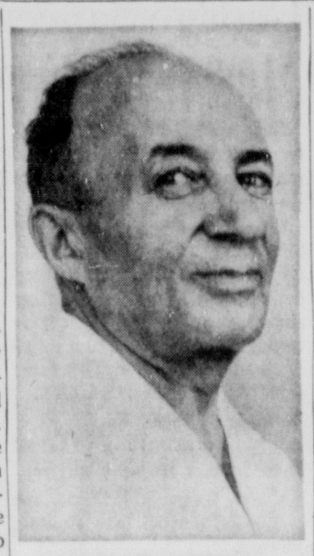

Unless further interest is demonstrated and attendance increases for meetings, the council will be forced to dissolve and parents will be required to pay transportation costs for their youngsters next year to the special class, the group said.

Westinghouse, Union Sift Ideas In Strike

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Westinghouse Corp. officials and union representatives were to take a look today at each other's ideas for settling the four-day strike at the big West Side Columbus appliance plant.

Federal mediator George Bell called both sides back into session this morning after an early afternoon recess Wednesday. He said then that neither side had yielded much but at least had agreed to review the other's suggestions.

The strike began Monday morning when Local 746, International Union of Electrical Workers, went out in protest over changing of about 18 jobs from incentive rates to straight time.

Midland Water Plant To Expand

The Midland Municipal Authority Wednesday night agreed to have plans completed for water department expansion after hearing two Crucible Steel Co. officials report the company's need for 30 per cent more water over the next four or five years.

Expansion is also needed since the plant is now operating at times over its rated 3 million gallons a day capacity and the authority also expects to serve the Ohioville area.

DONALD CRAIK, manager, reported the plant has gone over 3 million gallons a day 105 times so far this year.

Representing Crucible were A. T. Forrest, general superintendent, and T. J. Centi, pollution control engineer. Forrest of engineering and maintenance, reported the company has increased use of about 10 per cent each year since 1959. The company used about 48 million gallons a day in 1959 compared with 63½ million gallons now.

He said the company will no doubt expand, pointing out it took over the Treadwell property and hopes for a new continuous furnace in a strip mill in a few years.

HE SAID he believes there would be an increase of 5 to 10 per cent each year for the next few years and then taper off.

Preliminary site plans for expansion were gone over by Granville Kester, consulting engineer for the authority, and M. A. Wayne, sanitary engineer, both of Michael Baker Jr., Inc., engineering firm of Rochester.

Wayne went over plans for additional filters, two more basins, a new laboratory and possibly a new office.

On a motion by Rudolph Presutti, the engineers were asked to complete the expansion plans.

—:—

KESTER explained to the Crucible representatives that the authority is installing new high-service pumps and plans to increase the filtering capacity to 4 million gallons a day and with a capacity to go over that amount.

It was brought out that the problem of raw water supplied by Crucible to Midland may be solved later since the increased need will be gradual.

Concerning water to be furnished by Midland to Ohioville, Kester reported he talked with Daniel Baker, chairman of the other borough's municipal authority and borough engineer Tuesday and Baker said he is not ready to confer yet.

BIDS for a grit chamber for the sewage treatment plant were opened and referred to the Baker firm and the authority's purchasing committee for study and a report at a special meeting next Thursday when the authority will open bids for a metered parking lot in the 700 block of Midland Ave.

The bids were O. H. Martin of Pittsburgh, $31,670; Fraser Engineering Co. of Pittsburgh, $24,600; White, Resnor & Marion of Pittsburgh, $23,517, and D. L. Kollar Co., Inc., of East McKeesport, $19,629.

The need for removal of grit, received from the sewers, was realized after the plant went into operation. When it was designed, engineers believed a grit chamber would not be necessary.

A NEW contract with Duquesne Light Co. was received and referred to Kester for a report at next Thursday's meeting. The company also attached a rider to include additional service for the new high-service pumps that are to be installed. A new transformer will be required.

Presutti, labor committee chairman, reported the union representative for the water department employes sent a registered letter asking that negotiations be opened for a new contract for the one that expires at the end of this month.

Presutti said the union is asking a general wage increase, two additional paid holidays, including Election Day and Veterans Day, and severance pay. The authority decided to invite the union representative to the authority meeting Oct. 17.

Bills were ordered paid, amounting to $11,244.66 for the water department and $1,872.23 for the sewage treatment plant. Dr. Zanvel Sigal, chairman, presided.

$158; Indiana to 2nd, $123, 2nd St. hill, $104; Wright's Alley, $41, and California Ave. from 1st to 3rd, $439.

Council also authorized, at Graham's suggestion, stockpiling of aggregate near the work site for the streets, probably on Louisiana Ave. between 3rd and 4th Sts. where one-way traffic will be in effect.

Graham also requested permission for Sanders Firestone of East Liverpool, representative of the Dual Parking Meter Co., to appear at the next Council meeting to discuss a meter program for Chester.

"There have been discussions in the past about meters, and I think it might be wise for this Council to review the matter," he said. Councilmen indicated they would be willing to hear the proposals.

Council also received for study a recently - completed survey of water customers and usage in the city, which includes a tentatively suggested general flat rate system to replace the presently partly metered system.

Councilman Wayne Hutton, chairman of the water committee, asked councilmen to study the 12-page report for possible action at the next meeting.

As a tentative rate for homes, the report proposed $4 per quarter for each home, plus 75 cents for each person up to six in a home and 50 cents for each additional.

This would bring in an estimated $25,800 annually.

The report showed a total of 1,009 domestic customers, with 3,248 persons being served.

A total of 143 commercial customers are listed, most of whom would be metered under the program. A total of $22,733 was received from these customers in the past fiscal year.

The report indicates the income would hit $25,000 if most were metered, or would reach $28,750 if rates were raised 15 per cent.

In other action, Council authorized hiring of Paul Sherman, 345 Carolina Ave., and Joe Brian of Indiana Ave. as special officers, to be called to duty when needed by the mayor or police chief and to receive $1.50 an hour.

Applications for the two posts were also received from Ron Wathey of 1st St. and Hubert Myers, street supervisor. City Solicitor Ruth Cox Turner said in her opinion it would not be proper for the street supervisor to hold both posts.

The two men will be bonded, and will serve at ball games, emergencies, on regular officers' days off and other times when called.

Council authorized cleaning of the city reservoir after Hutton reported complaints of algae in the water. The reservoir was last cleaned in June.

The cleaning will be undertaken Saturday at an estimated cost of $150 for labor and other expenses. Councilmen recommended city residents be used for whatever extra labor is required.

Mrs. Turner reported on a check on responsibility for dog controls, and said County Court and the county assessor are in charge of such controls.

However, the county has released all but one dog warden, she reported, although the warden plans to visit the city shortly.

Mrs. Turner suggested the city have its own dog control ordinance, permitting city police to be responsible when the county wardens are not available. Council authorized her to prepare such an ordinance.

Mrs. Turner also reported on investigation of pending payments by drivers for damage to two fire hydrants. She said one man had left town, but a check waiting for him at a pottery had been attached by the city for partial payment. A promissory note is outstanding against the second man, she said.

Discussion was also held on a request from Myers for the city to pay his telephone bill, who said he receives many city calls and that the water department superintendent's bill is paid.

Roy Cashdollar, clerk, pointed out a state auditor had ruled that payment was improper. He said the city pays for the telephones of the policemen because they are on emergency call, while the water department, not the city, pays for Lewis Govey's bill.

Myers said he receives emergency calls at night for ashing streets in winter. Mayor Harry Abrams commented his bill is not paid, although he received many calls.

Council authorized Mrs. Turner to check with the auditor's office again to determine if the city may pay Myers' bill.

Myer also said the street truck needs repairs in preparation for winter, and the matter was referred to the street committee.

A request for a street light in an alley area near 4th St. and Indiana Ave. was discussed, but Council took no action, indicating the city could not undertake such additional installations at present.

Les Kirschler of River St. asked for repairs to the surface of 6th St. in the Mill Addition, and the street committee agreed to study the area.

Discussion was held on a planned relocation of a hydrant at 2nd St. and Carolina Ave., with Councilman Donald Hissam declaring the hydrant should be repaired despite lack of approval yet from the fire underwriters.

Councilman Hutton had recommended the hydrant be moved a short distance because of damage caused by shifting of the street. Hissam said he doubts if the street is shifting, contending the hydrant moves because it is improperly blocked at the bottom.

The Hi-Teen group at the City Hall requested bond be released for Rex Cowey, former special officer, who is no longer used for duty at the youth center.

Councilmen discussed complaints of a health hazard at an unoccupied Louisiana Ave. home, and learned County officials have been notified.

At the suggestion of Councilman Charles Kology, Council approved use of the City Hall gym for a group of area men who repaired the gym floor.

Probation Officer Speaker At Dia Konia Class Dinner

Routine work of a probation officer was discussed by Richard Rose of Lisbon, Columbiana County adult probation officer for 12 years, at the opening fall dinner meeting of the Dia Konia Class of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church Tuesday night in Hilbert Hall.

Introduced by Mrs. James Fortiner, program chairman, he explained the difference between juvenile and adult probation and listed the steps taken in seeking probation.

Investigation includes inquiring about case history, whether there was excessive drinking, family background, determining if a broken home is the cause of delinquency, education, employment and military records.

State laws require written reports and when the probation officer completes his record and reviews the facts, he makes the recommendation to the court, which decides on probation or imprisonment.

Rose discussed terms and conditions of probation.

He said those denied probation can be sentenced up to 30 years in prison, or to the reformatory if they are first offenders. The probation reports sent to Columbus are used by the parole board in considering release of prisoners.

He said there are now 85 persons on probation and he completes about 40 investigations a year.

Rose said probation is the "humane way of handling those involved in criminal offenses." A question-and-answer period followed.

Probation Officer Speaker At Dia Konia Class Dinner

Routine work of a probation officer was discussed by Richard Rose of Lisbon, Columbiana County adult probation officer for 12 years, at the opening fall dinner meeting of the Dia Konia Class of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church Tuesday night in Hilbert Hall.

Introduced by Mrs. James Fortiner, program chairman, he explained the difference between juvenile and adult probation and listed the steps taken in seeking probation.

Investigation includes inquiring about case history, whether there was excessive drinking, family background, determining if a broken home is the cause of delinquency, education, employment and military records.

State laws require written reports and when the probation officer completes his record and reviews the facts, he makes the recommendation to the court, which decides on probation or imprisonment.

Rose discussed terms and conditions of probation.

He said those denied probation can be sentenced up to 30 years in prison, or to the reformatory if they are first offenders. The probation reports sent to Columbus are used by the parole board in considering release of prisoners.

He said there are now 85 persons on probation and he completes about 40 investigations a year.

Rose said probation is the "humane way of handling those involved in criminal offenses." A question-and-answer period followed.

Mrs. Blair Flowers, president, extended the welcome. Miss Grace Deiderick conducted devotions on "Alone With the Master." She read Scripture reference from John and Mark in the presentation of a questionnaire.

Out Of The Air

By ALAN GILL

Jack Benny Says: 'Hello, Folks'

Alan Gill

A couple of years ago, Jack Benny was speeding in a cab toward the San Francisco Airport when he realized, with horror, that his wallet was gone. It could only have been left in one place: On the floor of the men's room in the basement of the Fairmont Hotel.

A few minutes later the poor fellow—he had no dimes in his pocket—found himself in the position of crawling under the locked door of one of the booths in said establishment.

A stranger entered the room. Benny turned. Their eyes met. And the man said, "Mr. Benny, you WOULD try to get under!"

-:-

JACK BENNY, obviously, is dogged by his own carefully built legend. That legend—now entering its 30th year on the air—will be perpetuated through the facilities of CBS-TV beginning next Tuesday. The day is now, but the sponsor marks the return of the native.

Irving Fein, Benny's manager since 1947, is the affable fellow who told me the missing wallet tale, and he also had a few observations to make about the life and sweet times of his employer.

"Everything's an evolution in Jack's career. He started as Benjamin Kubelsky, but took on the name Ben K. Benny for vaudeville, in which he played the violin—things like 'Roses of Picardy.'

-:-

"BUT BEN BERNIE was a close friend of his, so, as a favor to Ben, he took on the Jack instead.

"He worked with a piano accompanist and once got a laugh saying something to the guy. He'd throw in an occasional joke after that, found it worked, and became a single, with more laughs and less violin.

"He tried a girl assistant, telling dumb-girl jokes. When the girl left, Jack, who'd married Mary Livingston in 1927, brought on Mary. Evolution.

"Jack never sat down and said, 'I'll be a cheap skate.' It evolved. He told a cheap joke in vaudeville, got a laugh, and tried another, and another.

-:-

"THE SAME with the age joke. A nurse on one show was taking medical statistics and Jack said he was 36. There was a laugh, so he tried it again a couple of shows later, and it still clicked. He became 37, 38, 39, and froze it at 39.

"The same with the old feud with Fred Allen. After a little 10-year-old violinist on the Allen show played 'The Bee' one night, Allen said, 'Jack Benny should be ashamed of himself.'

"Benny retorted the next Sunday, Allen came back the week after, and the stunt was on. It was eight months before Jack and Fred actually sat down and talked about it."

I'll bet, I said, that Benny script does not "read" well.

Fein said, "No, it doesn't. The funniest lines on a Jack Benny program may be "Well—' or 'No' or 'Now, Dennis!'

"Jack once said, 'Some guys tell more jokes in two minutes than we do in a program,' and it's true. Jack risks things nobody else would risk, like 30 seconds of silent air.

-:-

"I THINK the guy could make a silent reaction work for him for five minutes and get away with it. Once he did this, you know, in London at the Palladium—after Phil Harris went offstage with the line, 'Folks, I'll be back, because that old man needs me.'

"Jack just looked after him, and kept it going 20 seconds, a minute, two minutes. One night, a Cockney voice in the audience called, 'For goodness sake, Mr. Benny, say something!'

"But Jack can't work with hecklers—REAL hecklers. He just gets off. Back in 1923, at the 14th Street Theater, those guys used to yell and throw things.

"Jack came on, said, 'Hello, folks,' then he said, 'Goodbye, folks,' and got off. He never came back, either.

"You know, he's 68 years old, that man. And he works, he moves, he's got the energy and curiosity of a kid.

"His health is perfect. His blood pressure and the rest are those of a—well, a man of 39. When he's 80 years old, he'll still be coming on and saying, 'Hello, folks!'"

Out Of The Air

By ALAN GILL

Jack Benny Says: 'Hello, Folks'

A couple of years ago, Jack Benny was speeding in a cab toward the San Francisco Airport when he realized, with horror, that his wallet was gone. It could only have been left in one place: On the floor of the men's room in the basement of the Fairmont Hotel.

Alan Gill

A few minutes later the poor fellow—he had no dimes in his pocket—found himself in the position of crawling under the locked door of one of the booths in said establishment.

A stranger entered the room. Benny turned. Their eyes met. And the man said, "Mr. Benny, you WOULD try to get under!"

-:-

JACK BENNY, obviously, is dogged by his own carefully built legend. That legend—now entering its 30th year on the air—will be perpetuated through the facilities of CBS-TV beginning next Tuesday. The day is now, but the sponsor marks the return of the native.

Irving Fein, Benny's manager since 1947, is the affable fellow who told me the missing wallet tale, and he also had a few observations to make about the life and sweet times of his employer.

"Everything's an evolution in Jack's career. He started as Benjamin Kubelsky, but took on the name Ben K. Benny for vaudeville, in which he played the violin—things like 'Roses of Picardy.'

-:-

"BUT BEN BERNIE was a close friend of his, so, as a favor to Ben, he took on the Jack instead.

"He worked with a piano accompanist and once got a laugh saying something to the guy. He'd throw in an occasional joke after that, found it worked, and became a single, with more laughs and less violin.

"He tried a girl assistant, telling dumb-girl jokes. When the girl left, Jack, who'd married Mary Livingston in 1927, brought on Mary. Evolution.

"Jack never sat down and said, 'I'll be a cheap skate.' It evolved. He told a cheap joke in vaudeville, got a laugh, and tried another, and another.

-:-

"THE SAME with the age joke. A nurse on one show was taking medical statistics and Jack said he was 36. There was a laugh, so he tried it again a couple of shows later, and it still clicked. He became 37, 38, 39, and froze it at 39.

"The same with the old feud with Fred Allen. After a little 10-year-old violinist on the Allen show played 'The Bee' one night, Allen said, 'Jack Benny should be ashamed of himself.'

"Benny retorted the next Sunday, Allen came back the week after, and the stunt was on. It was eight months before Jack and Fred actually sat down and talked about it."

I'll bet, I said, that Benny script does not "read" well.

Fein said, "No, it doesn't. The funniest lines on a Jack Benny program may be "Well——' or 'No' or 'Now, Dennis!'

"Jack once said, 'Some guys tell more jokes in two minutes than we do in a program,' and it's true. Jack risks things nobody else would risk, like 30 seconds of silent air.

-:-

"I THINK the guy could make a silent reaction work for him for five minutes and get away with it. Once he did this, you know, in London at the Palladium—after Phil Harris went offstage with the line, 'Folks, I'll be back, because that old man needs me.'

"Jack just looked after him, and kept it going 20 seconds, a minute, two minutes. One night, a Cockney voice in the audience called, 'For goodness sake, Mr. Benny, say something!'

"But Jack can't work with hecklers—REAL hecklers. He just gets off. Back in 1923, at the 14th Street Theater, those guys used to yell and throw things.

"Jack came on, said, 'Hello, folks,' then he said, 'Goodbye, folks,' and got off. He never came back, either.

"You know, he's 68 years old, that man. And he works, he moves, he's got the energy and curiosity of a kid.

"His health is perfect. His blood pressure and the rest are those of a—well, a man of 39. When he's 80 years old, he'll still be coming on and saying, 'Hello, folks!' "

McGee said a Picasso lithograph from a series of his works entitled "Le Grand Etats" was among the missing art objects. He valued it at $1,900.

Magic Number For Yanks Is 5; Bombers Spill Nats, 8-5

Drysdale Blanks Braves, 4-0; Wills Swipes 94th Base

Killebrew, Power Muscle Twins' 12-5 Victory Over Detroit

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bobby Richardson, first American Leaguer to reach the 200-hit mark since 1955, has fired a four-hit salvo in his bid to become the second hit-'em-where-they-ain't swinger in 10 years to grab the most valuable player award.

Playing a key role in New York's drive for its 12th pennant in 14 years, Richardson went 4-for-5 in a 8-5 victory over Washington Wednesday night that moved the Yankees a giant step closer to their 27th championship.

The Yankee second baseman brought his hit total to 201, raised his batting average to .305, scored his 95th run and drove in his 57th tally while helping the American League leaders reduce their magic pennant - clinching number to five.

Any combination of five Yankee victories and-or Minnesota defeats will clinch it for New York. The Twins remained in contention as Harmon Killebrew tagged two homers and Vic Power hit a grand slam homer in a 12-5 walloping of Detroit.

Home runs by Leo Burke, Jim Fregosi and George Thomas gave the third-place Los Angeles Angels a 9-4 triumph over Baltimore that snapped a six-game losing streak. The Angels are 7½ games behind with nine to play. The Yanks and Twins have eight games remaining.

Walt Bond and John Romano drove in all the runs while Dick Donovan became the second AL hurler to win 20 as Cleveland outslugged Kansas City 10-9. Mike Hershberger's leadoff homer in the 10th gave the Chicago White Sox a 3-2 decision over Boston.

In the National League, the first-place Los Angeles Dodgers reduced their magic number to seven by blanking Milwaukee 4-0 while second-place San Francisco whipped St. Louis 7-4 and remained 3½ behind.

Pittsburgh shut out third-place Cincinnati 1-0 and Philadelphia nipped the Chicago Cubs 4-3 in the first game of a doubleheader called due to rain in the sixth inning. The second game was postponed as was the Houston-New York twinbill.

Killebrew continued his campaign for the home run and runs batted in crowns by bringing his homer total to 42 and raising his RBI mark to 123, both tops in the AL.

Burke, Fregosi and Thomas accounted for six of the Angels runs while home runs by Jim Gentile and Charley Lau took care of three Oriole tallies.

Bond drove in six runs with two homers and a double for the Indians while Romano knocked in four with the same production in support of the 34-year-old Donovan (20-9).

Hershberger, hitting his fourth homer, made it his third game-winning circuit shot when he tagged Red Sox reliever Dick Radatz (9-6) leading off the 10th.

'Kids' Score Victories In U.S. Amateur

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—The "kids" have taken over the 62nd U.S. Amateur Golf Championship.

Going into today's fifth and sixth rounds after two rounds Wednesday cut the field to 16, light-hearted Bill Joe Patton, Morganton, N.C., lumber broker, was the "old man" of the field at 40.

Bob Allen of West Hartford, Conn., 38-year-old sales engineer for a steel company, and 31-year-old Charlie Smith, Gastonia, N.C. automobile dealer, are the only other survivors over 25. Eight of the others are 24 or less and three still are in their teens. Nine are collegians.

So devastating has been the sweep of the young and hungry set that there's not a former champion around and only three men of the nine on the list being considered for the for-man U.S. team going to Japan next month for the World Championship Team matches. Patton, Smith and Arkansan Dick Sikes, 22-year-old winner of the last two Public Links titles make up the trio.

Such notables as former champions Dick Chapman, Harvie Ward and Deane Beman and Dr. Edgar Updegraff and Marion Methvin, semifinalist last year, went out during the third and fourth rounds Wednesday.

Beman was vanquished by Homero Blancas, 24, of the University of Houston, in a 24-hole marathon in the fourth round after each had breezed to victory in the morning.

Blancas opened the fifth round today against the "baby" of the field, 18-year-old Dave Marad, Massachusetts schoolboy champion from Milton, who is going to sharpen his game this winter while serving as a bellboy on the staff of a nearby resort hotel.

Aussies Favored On Rough Seas In America Cup

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—Steadily worsening weather conditions have cast a pall over the once-bright America's Cup picture for the United States' Weatherly.

The best of seven series for the ancient, battered cup stood at 1-1 today as Weatherly went to the starting line against Australia's Gretel.

High winds and heavy seas had the Americans worried and the challenging Aussies jubilant.

"If these conditions get worse, it could be awful bad," said Phillip Rhodes, Weatherly's designer, after the U.S. team went through a four-hour drill in winds up to 32 miles per hour.

Weatherly scored a resounding, half mile victory in the opening race in light winds last Saturday, causing many observers to predict a four-race sweep.

But Gretel came back to capture the second race on heavier seas Tuesday as Weatherly's crew had trouble tacking to windward and displayed slow spinnaker work.

'Steals' May Be Worth Extra $50,000 To Wills

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Fleet Maury Wills chases an asterisk Friday that could be worth $50,000 or more.

Wills and his Los Angeles Dodger teammates move into St. Louis for their 154th game of the season with Wills in hot pursuit of Ty Cobb's modern record of 96 stolen bases.

Wills, acclaimed as the greatest base runner of his era, swiped his 94th in the Dodgers' 4-0 victory over Milwaukee Wednesday. Los Angeles, leading the National League race, is idle today.

"Sure, I'm thinking about it," Wills said, "but I'm more interested in us clinching the pennant."

If Wills should crack the record in the 154 games, many observers feel the feat would be worth as much as $50,000 in off-season endorsements over and above what he may get if he goes to 162 games to break it.

And the odds are against the swift shortstop. He has to get two to tie and three to break the mark Friday on bruised and battered legs and a painful ankle.

"Yes, it hurts to run," he said Wednesday of an ailing ankle. "It hurts so much I have to loosen up pretty good before a game, either running by myself or with the pitchers in the outfield."

Wills faces the same ruling that applied to Roger Maris last season when he sought Babe Ruth's record of 60 home runs.

The problem involves the expanded schedules. Ruth and Cobb set their records in a 154 game schedule. With both the National and American Leagues expanded to 10 teams, clubs now play 162 games.

The ruling, by baseball commissioner Ford Frick, is that the record must be broken in 154 team decisions or go into the record book with an asterisk, indicating that it was broken in a 162 game schedule.

Rigney Signs 2-Year Contract With Angels

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Bill Rigney, who has a good chance of being named American League manager of 1962, has just been named manager of 1963 and 1964 by the Los Angeles Angels.

Rigney, who will probably finish third with a team that was supposedly destined for oblivion said his new 2-year contract "is the fattest I've ever had."

Rigney was believed to be making about $33,000 under his original contract. The new one may put him in the $40,000 bracket, or even higher.

Maury Needs Two Steals In One Game To Tie Mark By Cobb

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

With Don Drysdale applying the stop and Maury Wills the go, the Los Angeles Dodgers are back on the track in their stretch drive for the National League's winner cycle.

Drysdale put the stopper on the Dodgers' three-game losing string Wednesday with a five-hit pitching gem as the front-runners knocked off Milwaukee's streaking Braves 4-0.

Wills triggered the attack by opening the game with a single, stealing second, moving to third on a bunt hit and scoring the only run Drysdale needed on a double play grounder.

The Dodger whippet has 94 steals, with one game left to match or better Ty Cobb's 154-game record of 96. His chance to better the 47-year-old mark will come Friday night at St. Louis against the Cardinals.

The Dodgers maintained their 3½ game lead over the San Francisco Giants, who powered their way out a six-game losing slump on homers by Willie Mays and Tom Haller and beat the Cards, 7-4. The loss was the eighth in a row for St. Louis.

Bob Friend pitched a six-hitter and Donn Clendenon homered as Pittsburgh trimmed Cincinnati by 1-0, dropping the third-place Reds 5½ games off the pace. Philadelphia downed Chicago 4-3 in a doubleheader opener shortened to six innings by rain. The second Phillies-Cub game was postponed, as was the twi-night doubleheader scheduled at New York between the Mets and Houston.

In the American League, the New York Yankees stayed four games in front by overcoming Washington 8-5, runnerup Minnesota swamped Detroit 12-5, Los Angeles bombed Baltimore, 9-4, Chicago edged Boston 3-2 in 10 innings, and Cleveland outlasted Kansas City 10-9.

Mays whacked his 45th homer, high in the majors, and Haller connected for two as the Giants hopped on Larry Jackson and the tailspinning Cards for all seven of their runs in the first three innings.

Haller homered in the second, making it 4-2. Then the Giants routed Jackson with a five-run explosion in the third, when Mays homered with two on and Haller with one aboard.

Bob Friend of the Pirates became an 18-game winner with his six-hit shutout of Cincinnati. Clendenon settled matters in the seventh with his homer.

By winning their abbreviated match with the Cubs, the Phillies made it five straight victories, 14 in their last 17 games and moved up to the .500 mark for the first time since May.

PITCHING — Don Drysdale, Dodgers, won his 25th game with five-hitter, blanking Milwaukee 4-0, and maintaining Los Angeles' 3½-game National League lead over second-place San Francisco.

13 Make Up Field In Jug Race Today

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — Thirteen 3-year-old packers, making up the Little Brown Jug's fastest field ever, were poised for today's 17th running of the colorful harness horse race with a $75,038 purse.

Dry, crisp weather with temperatures in the 60s was forecast as the vanguard of an expected crowd of 35,000 arrived to watch the speedy sidewheelers go after the third jewel in pacing's triple crown.

Post time for the first mile heat of the three or four that determine the outcome at the Delaware County Fairgrounds track was 1 p.m. (EST).

Although the field included Ranger Knight, winner of one leg of the triple crown by taking the Cane Futurity, and Thor Hanover, who got the other in the Messenger Stakes, Coffee Break held on as at least co-favorite. Although bothered by bowed tendons, he has paced the fastest mile of any harness horse this year, a 1:57 at Springfield, Ill.

But Thor Hanover (best clocking 1:58) Meadow Battles (1:58 1-5), Lehigh Hanover (2:00 4-5), Haughton Hanover (2:00 4-5) and Play Bill (2:03 2-5) figured to make the first heat, which included Coffee Break, a torrid race.

Killebrew, Power Muscle Twins' 12-5 Victory Over Detroit

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bobby Richardson, first American Leaguer to reach the 200-hit mark since 1955, has fired a four-hit salvo in his bid to become the second hit-'em-where-they-ain't swinger in 10 years to grab the most valuable player award.

Playing a key role in New York's drive for its 12th pennant in 14 years, Richardson went 4-for-5 in a 8-5 victory over Washington Wednesday night that moved the Yankees a giant step closer to their 27th championship.

The Yankee second baseman brought his hit total to 201, raised his batting average to .305, scored his 95th run and drove in his 57th tally while helping the American League leaders reduce their magic pennant - clinching number to five.

Any combination of five Yankee victories and-or Minnesota defeats will clinch it for New York. The Twins remained in contention as Harmon Killebrew tagged two homers and Vic Power hit a grand slam homer in a 12-5 walloping of Detroit.

Home runs by Leo Burke, Jim Fregosi and George Thomas gave the third-place Los Angeles Angels a 9-4 triumph over Baltimore that snapped a six-game losing streak. The Angels are 7½ games behind with nine to play. The Yanks and Twins have eight games remaining.

Walt Bond and John Romano drove in all the runs while Dick Donovan became the second AL hurler to win 20 as Cleveland outslugged Kansas City 10-9. Mike Hershberger's leadoff homer in the 10th gave the Chicago White Sox a 3-2 decision over Boston.

In the National League, the first-place Los Angeles Dodgers reduced their magic number to seven by blanking Milwaukee 4-0 while second-place San Francisco whipped St. Louis 7-4 and remained 3½ behind.

Pittsburgh shut out third-place Cincinnati 1-0 and Philadelphia nipped the Chicago Cubs 4-3 in the first game of a doubleheader called due to rain in the sixth inning. The second game was postponed as was the Houston-New York twinbill.

Killebrew continued his campaign for the home run and runs batted in crowns by bringing his homer total to 42 and raising his RBI mark to 123, both tops in the AL.

Burke, Fregosi and Thomas accounted for six of the Angels runs while home runs by Jim Gentile and Charley Lau took care of three Oriole tallies.

Bond drove in six runs with two homers and a double for the Indians while Romano knocked in four with the same production in support of the 34-year-old Donovan (20-9).

Hershberger, hitting his fourth homer, made it his third game-winning circuit shot when he tagged Red Sox reliever Dick Radatz (9-6) leading off the 10th.

Local Elks Lodge To Hold Bernie Allen Night Oct. 5

Baseball celebrities, past and present, will be on hand Oct. 5 to help the local Elks Lodge 258 honor Bernie Allen, East Liverpool's first major league player in over 30 years.

Gale Laughlin, general chairman, announced that the Minnesota Twins would be represented by Rich Rollins, the Parma boy who along with Allen has carried the Twins to second place in the American League and Floyd Baker, first base coach for the Twins from Youngstown, who signed Allen.

—:—

FROM the past will be Harry (Hi) Myers, Forbes Alcock and Bill Powell, former local diamond greats who played in the major leagues. Myers spent most of his playing days with the Brooklyn Dodgers, coming up in 1909 and finishing with St. Louis and Cincinnati in 1925. Alcock was a member of the Chicago White Sox in 1914 and Powell pitched for Pittsburgh, Chicago and Cincinnati between 1909 and 1913.

Along with the individuals in baseball, members of the East Liverpool Pony League All-Stars, who advanced far in tournament play will be honored.

'Steals' May Be Worth Extra $50,000 To Wills

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Fleet Maury Wills chases an asterisk Friday that could be worth $50,000 or more.

Wills and his Los Angeles Dodger teammates move into St. Louis for their 154th game of the season with Wills in hot pursuit of Ty Cobb's modern record of 96 stolen bases.

Wills, acclaimed as the greatest base runner of his era, swiped his 94th in the Dodgers' 4-0 victory over Milwaukee Wednesday. Los Angeles, leading the National League race, is idle today.

"Sure, I'm thinking about it," Wills said, "but I'm more interested in us clinching the pennant."

If Wills should crack the record in the 154 games, many observers feel the feat would be worth as much as $50,000 in off-season endorsements over and above what he may get if he goes to 162 games to break it.

And the odds are against the swift shortstop. He has to get two to tie and three to break the mark Friday on bruised and battered legs and a painful ankle.

"Yes, it hurts to run," he said Wednesday of an ailing ankle. "It hurts so much I have to loosen up pretty good before a game, either running by myself or with the pitchers in the outfield."

Wills faces the same ruling that applied to Roger Maris last season when he sought Babe Ruth's record of 60 home runs.

The problem involves the expanded schedules. Ruth and Cobb set their records in a 154 game schedule. With both the National and American Leagues expanded to 10 teams, clubs now play 162 games.

The ruling, by baseball commissioner Ford Frick, is that the record must be broken in 154 team decisions or go into the record book with an asterisk, indicating that it was broken in a 162 game schedule.

Rigney Signs 2-Year Contract With Angels

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Bill Rigney, who has a good chance of being named American League manager of 1962, has just been named manager of 1963 and 1964 by the Los Angeles Angels.

Rigney, who will probably finish third with a team that was supposedly destined for oblivion said his new 2-year contract "is the fattest I've ever had."

Rigney was believed to be making about $33,000 under his original contract. The new one may put him in the $40,000 bracket, or even higher.

Maury Needs Two Steals In One Game To Tie Mark By Cobb

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

With Don Drysdale applying the stop and Maury Wills the go, the Los Angeles Dodgers are back on the track in their stretch drive for the National League's winner cycle.

Drysdale put the stopper on the Dodgers' three-game losing string Wednesday with a five-hit pitching gem as the front-runners knocked off Milwaukee's streaking Braves 4-0.

Wills triggered the attack by opening the game with a single, stealing second, moving to third on a bunt hit and scoring the only run Drysdale needed on a double play grounder.

The Dodger whippet has 94 steals, with one game left to match or better Ty Cobb's 154-game record of 96. His chance to better the 47-year-old mark will come Friday night at St. Louis against the Cardinals.

The Dodgers maintained their 3½ game lead over the San Francisco Giants, who powered their way out a six-game losing slump on homers by Willie Mays and Tom Haller and beat the Cards, 7-4. The loss was the eighth in a row for St. Louis.

Bob Friend pitched a six-hitter and Donn Clendenon homered as Pittsburgh trimmed Cincinnati by 1-0, dropping the third-place Reds 5½ games off the pace. Philadelphia downed Chicago 4-3 in a doubleheader opener shortened to six innings by rain. The second Phillies-Cub game was postponed, as was the twi-night doubleheader scheduled at New York between the Mets and Houston.

In the American League, the New York Yankees stayed four games in front by overcoming Washington 8-5, runnerup Minnesota swamped Detroit 12-5, Los Angeles bombed Baltimore, 9-4, Chicago edged Boston 3-2 in 10 innings, and Cleveland outlasted Kansas City 10-9.

Mays whacked his 45th homer, high in the majors, and Haller connected for two as the Giants hopped on Larry Jackson and the tailspinning Cards for all seven of their runs in the first three innings.

Haller homered in the second, making it 4-2. Then the Giants routed Jackson with a five-run explosion in the third, when Mays homered with two on and Haller with one aboard.

Bob Friend of the Pirates became an 18-game winner with his six-hit shutout of Cincinnati. Ciendenon settled matters in the seventh with his homer.

By winning their abbreviated match with the Cubs, the Phillies made it five straight victories, 14 in their last 17 games and moved up to the .500 mark for the first time since May.

13 Make Up Field In Jug Race Today

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — Thirteen 3-year-old packers, making up the Little Brown Jug's fastest field ever, were poised for today's 17th running of the colorful harness horse race with a $75,038 purse.

Dry, crisp weather with temperatures in the 60s was forecast as the vanguard of an expected crowd of 35,000 arrived to watch the speedy sidewheelers go after the third jewel in pacing's triple crown.

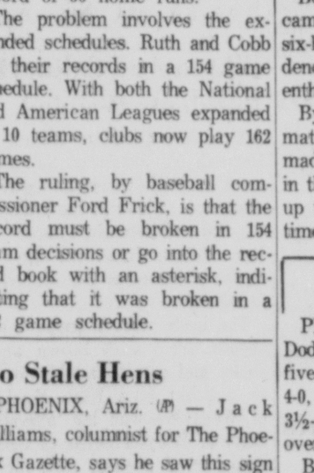

Post time for the first mile heat of the three or four that determine the outcome at the Delaware County Fairgrounds track was 1 p.m. (EST).

Although the field included Ranger Knight, winner of one leg of the triple crown by taking the Cane Futurity, and Thor Hanover, who got the other in the Messenger Stakes, Coffee Break held on as at least co-favorite. Although bothered by bowed tendons, he has paced the fastest mile of any harness horse this year, a 1:57 at Springfield, Ill.

But Thor Hanover (best clocking 1:58) Meadow Battles (1:58 1-5), Lehigh Hanover (2:00 4-5), Haughton Hanover (2:00 4-5) and Play Bill (2:03 2-5) figured to make the first heat, which included Coffee Break, a torrid race.

2 Sisters Claim Papa Kept Them Locked In House

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The tract house in suburban Missnon Hills is immaculate, say police, but it has padlocks on every window and double locks on all doors.

Bonnie Austin, 16, and Karen Austin, 15, claim their father kept them virtual prisoners in the house for seven months — until they broke a window and fled to police Tuesday.

The father, Eugene Austin, 39, consulting engineer, was charged Wednesday with endangering the girls' health and safety. He told newsmen: "As a parent I tried to do what was right and take care of my daughters."

Austin said he was divorced from the mother of the girls about 10 years ago, remarried and was divorced again in 1957. Since then he has lived alone with the girls.

Robert Andrews, minister of the First Christian Church, gave a talk on "Responsibility" at a meeting of the Wellsville Composite Unit of Civil Air Patrol Wednesday night at the high school.

Sam Coles Jr. continued instruction in a class on "Theory of Flight". Textbooks are expected soon. A regional conference will be held Sept. 29-30 at Louisville, Ky., with two senior members planning to attend.

Plans were made to begin work on the new headquarters at 303 Main St. within the next two weeks.

Thirteen cadets and four seniors attended, along with Warrant Officer Gust Lardis of Steubenville. Next meeting is Wednesday at 7 p. m. at the high school.

Patrons Of Drive-In Say They Got Gypped

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Dozens of patrons at a Phoenix drive-in theater say they got gypped.

It was late and the film, "Lolita," had one reel to go.

The projectionist didn't realize it, however. He closed up shop, climbed into his car and drove home.

Lisbon Office Rented For Cancer Society

Headquarters for the Columbiana County chapter of the American Cancer Society will be located at Lisbon at 44 W. Park Ave., rear of the Golden Star Dairy, around Oct. 1, according to Mrs. Jayne Calhoun, executive secretary.

The headquarters will be located in the former Pezanno Shoe Repair shop, and is in the Rauch Building. Adjoining rooms which housed a taxi office will be used as storeroom for supplies, Mrs. Calhoun said.

County quarters were in the Courthouse until moved to East Liverpool about 10 years ago. When Mrs. Jane Jolly of East Liverpool resigned as executive secretary to return to fulltime nursing, the board decided to relocate in Lisbon because it is in the center of the county.

Mrs. Calhoun was elected to succeed Mrs. Jolly Aug. 15.

Tough new '63 Chevrolet Trucks are here!

...THE ONES THAT WHIPPED THE BAJA RUN...TOUGHEST UNDER THE SUN... TO SHOW THE WORTH OF NEW ENGINES, FRAMES AND SUSPENSIONS!

Millions of years ago nature fashioned a proving ground for trucks that man can never duplicate. Today it is known as the Baja (bah' hah) California Peninsula, Mexico.

If you think you build a tough truck, this is the place to find out. This road bears no resemblance to highways on the Mexican mainland.

It's fine for 140 miles below the U.S. border. Then the beating begins. Rocks and hard-baked ruts bang, punch, jab and jerk the trucks from stem to stern. Loose sand makes them struggle and strain. Dust chokes them. Heat roasts them. Rivers drench them.

The Baja Run took this Chevrolet truck caravan 17 days to go the 1,066 miles. It was made up of a Carryall, a ½-ton pickup with new 230-cu.-in. 6-cylinder engine, a ¾-ton pickup with new 292-cu.-in.* 6-cylinder engine, a medium-duty unit with refrigerated van, a medium-duty diesel tanker, and a heavy-duty tandem.

All the trucks performed magnificently. Not one was forced to drop out because of mechanical difficulty.

Trucks that can take this kind of beating can take on your toughest truck jobs. See the tough quality-built '63 Chevrolet trucks with all their new improvements. *Optional at extra cost.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The tract house in suburban Missnon Hills is immaculate, say police, but it has padlocks on every window and double locks on all doors.

The father, Eugene Austin, 39, consulting engineer, was charged Wednesday with endangering the girls' health and safety. He told newsmen: "As a parent I tried to do what was right and take care of my daughters."

Austin said he was divorced from the mother of the girls about 10 years ago, remarried and was divorced again in 1957. Since then he has lived alone with the girls.

Dear Heloise: Never throw away old worn out table clothes while holes in them. Take your pinking shears and cut them in small sizes to be used later as dish towels, hand towels or napkinds.

By using your pinking shears, this will save hemming each towel. I have never known good table clothes, such as linen, to ravel. As the center part is usually worn, I cut these clothes from the edges.

ELLIE TIFFIN

Chalk This One Up

DEAR HELOISE: Your idea for chalk on shirt collars works well on grease and many other things.

Our light - colored nylon sofa had dark spots on the arms. I took your advice and rubbed dime store chalk on the arms of our sofa last night.

Today I vacuumed the sofa and cleaned it with a commercial product. The dark spots are all gone and our beautiful sofa is reclaimed.

Many, many thanks for what I thought was an unsolvable problem.

DELIGHTED

This woman is speaking of ordinary dime store chalk. Yes, the kind Junior uses on his blackboard!

I just tried this same method on my old Sleepy Hollow rocker. It worked beautifully. Amazing what a little chalk will do, huh?

HELOISE

Game Saves Steps

DEAR HELOISE: For those who live in houses with more than one floor (the dryer in the basement, the bedrooms on the second floor, etc.) and have folded and sorted their laundry. . . put each child's belongings on the side of the steps to the second floor.

When the children go upstairs for their naps, each one can carry his own bundle and, of course, Mother totes the towels, sheets, etc.

This is my daughter-in-law's method. She has made it a game for her seven children, the oldest being eight. It not only keeps the kiddies busy but it also educational. Even the 1-year-old wants to carry his socks.

MRS. C. E. LOEHR

Isn't it nice that one mother gives credit to her daughter-in-law? God bless her.

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE: I let a kettle of Italian macaroni boil dry and all but ruined a good stainless steel kettle. I boiled water and soda in the pot and it cleaned beautifully!

ROSANNA RUSSO

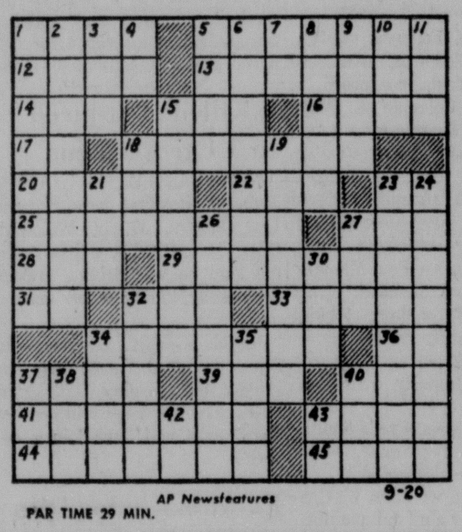

Made To Match

DEAR HELOISE: On special occasions, I mix a few drops of pure food color in some liquid white shoe polish and apply it to my children's white shoes. This can be washed off easily and the pastel coloring will match any little outfit they happen to have on.

Any mother or child can make an inexpensive toy for the younger ones by inserting a couple of bells, the round kind, in a small baking powder can, a small oatmeal box or any similar type container. Wrap colored pastic around this and tie securely at each end.

The baby loves it!

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: Never throw away old worn out table clothes while holes in them. Take your pinking shears and cut them in small sizes to be used later as dish towels, hand towels or napkinds.

By using your pinking shears, this will save hemming each towel. I have never known good table clothes, such as linen, to ravel. As the center part is usually worn, I cut these clothes from the edges.

ELLIE TIFFIN

Chalk This One Up

DEAR HELOISE: Your idea for chalk on shirt collars works well on grease and many other things.

Our light - colored nylon sofa had dark spots on the arms. I took your advice and rubbed dime store chalk on the arms of our sofa last night.

Today I vacuumed the sofa and cleaned it with a commercial product. The dark spots are all gone and our beautiful sofa is reclaimed.

Many, many thanks for what I thought was an unsolvable problem.

DELIGHTED

This woman is speaking of ordinary dime store chalk. Yes, the kind Junior uses on his blackboard!

I just tried this same method on my old Sleepy Hollow rocker. It worked beautifully. Amazing what a little chalk will do, huh?

HELOISE

Game Saves Steps

DEAR HELOISE: For those who live in houses with more than one floor (the dryer in the basement, the bedrooms on the second floor, etc.) and have folded and sorted their laundry. . . put each child's belongings on the side of the steps to the second floor.

When the children go upstairs for their naps, each one can carry his own bundle and, of course, Mother totes the towels, sheets, etc.

This is my daughter-in-law's method. She has made it a game for her seven children, the oldest being eight. It not only keeps the kiddies busy but it also educational. Even the 1-year-old wants to carry his socks.

MRS. C. E. LOEHR

Isn't it nice that one mother gives credit to her daughter-in-law? God bless her.

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE: I let a kettle of Italian macaroni boil dry and all but ruined a good stainless steel kettle. I boiled water and soda in the pot and it cleaned beautifully!

ROSANNA RUSSO

Made To Match

DEAR HELOISE: On special occasions, I mix a few drops of pure food color in some liquid white shoe polish and apply it to my children's white shoes. This can be washed off easily and the pastel coloring will match any little outfit they happen to have on.

Any mother or child can make an inexpensive toy for the younger ones by inserting a couple of bells, the round kind, in a small baking powder can, a small oatmeal box or any similar type container. Wrap colored pastic around this and tie securely at each end.

The baby loves it!

Robert Beresford Gets Chief Deputy Position

Robert Beresford of Wellsville, Columbiana County deputy sheriff for nine years, was appointed chief deputy Wednesday by Sheriff Russell VanFossan.

Beresford, 1790 Chester Ave., Wellsville, succeeds James Miller of Salineville, who resigned last week to become probation officer for Juvenile Court.

A veteran of World War II, Beresford became a deputy sheriff in 1949 under the late Howard J. Clark, and served for two years before he was recalled to the Marine Corps to spend 13 months at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

When discharged he became an officer on the Wellsville police force until 1955, when he returned as a deputy sheriff.

He is married to the former Bonnie Betts, and has two sons and two daughters.

Sheriff VanFossan said a replacement for Beresford has not yet been selected.

Buckey Club Permit Plea Turned Down

The Ohio Department of Liquor Control at Columbus has rejected an application for renewal of a D-4 permit at the Buckeye Club, 616 Dresden Ave., ruling it is not a club within the contemplation and meaning of law.

The department also stated the subject applicant is not carrying on the business solely in the interest of dues-paying membership as required by law, but that the premises are operated in the interest of one person or small group of persons.

The department also cited the past record which shows a 14-day suspension was issued against the club in December 1961.

Another reason given by the department was that an Arthur Lewis will have an interest in the business without being a permit holder of record, which is contrary to the Revised Code of Ohio.

Departmental investigation discloses that Lewis' record of convictions for offenses other than traffic misdemeanors include unlawful sale of alcoholic beverages and unlawful possession of alcoholic beverages in West Virginia in December of 1960 and gambling and after hours sales in August 1961 in West Virginia.

The department stated this "indicates a manifestation of a general disregard for law and order on his part. The issuing of a class D-4 permit into the hands of such a person would create an atmosphere attractive to other persons of similar character and would be conducive to further disregard of law and order."

Ohio Student Hurt In Auto Accident

MENLO PARK, Calif. (AP)—Stanford University student Scott McCullough, whose home was listed as Herbert, Ohio, suffered a possible skull fracture in an accident that nearly turned out worse than it did. The auto he was driving missed a turn Wednesday and wound up hanging precariously between a bridge railing and a creek bank.

Three of McCullough's fraternity brothers from Phi Gamma Delta were with him and came away with lesser injuries.

Robert Beresford Gets Chief Deputy Position

Robert Beresford of Wellsville, Columbiana County deputy sheriff for nine years, was appointed chief deputy Wednesday by Sheriff Russell VanFossan.

Beresford, 1790 Chester Ave., Wellsville, succeeds James Miller of Salineville, who resigned last week to become probation officer for Juvenile Court.

A veteran of World War II, Beresford became a deputy sheriff in 1949 under the late Howard J. Clark, and served for two years before he was recalled to the Marine Corps to spend 13 months at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

When discharged he became an officer on the Wellsville police force until 1955, when he returned as a deputy sheriff.

He is married to the former Bonnie Betts, and has two sons and two daughters.

Sheriff VanFossan said a replacement for Beresford has not yet been selected.

Buckey Club Permit Plea Turned Down

The Ohio Department of Liquor Control at Columbus has rejected an application for renewal of a D-4 permit at the Buckeye Club, 616 Dresden Ave., ruling it is not a club within the contemplation and meaning of law.

The department also stated the subject applicant is not carrying on the business solely in the interest of dues-paying membership as required by law, but that the premises are operated in the interest of one person or small group of persons.

The department also cited the past record which shows a 14-day suspension was issued against the club in December 1961.

Another reason given by the department was that an Arthur Lewis will have an interest in the business without being a permit holder of record, which is contrary to the Revised Code of Ohio.

Departmental investigation discloses that Lewis' record of convictions for offenses other than traffic misdemeanors include unlawful sale of alcoholic beverages and unlawful possession of alcoholic beverages in West Virginia in December of 1960 and gambling and after hours sales in August 1961 in West Virginia.

The department stated this "indicates a manifestation of a general disregard for law and order on his part. The issuing of a class D-4 permit into the hands of such a person would create an atmosphere attractive to other persons of similar character and would be conducive to further disregard of law and order."

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: This will probably wind up in the wastebasket because if you printed it you'd look like a fool.

For years you've been telling teen-agers they are too young to get married. Maybe you were in empty-headed kook when you were 16 but kids are a lot smarter today.

My husband and I were married four years ago. We were both 16. I know you're thinking, "You had to." Well, you're wrong. It so happens I was pregnant but it was on purpose. It was the only way to get my parents to sign for me.

We quit high school and you always say that's a big mistake, too, but you're wrong again. We both got swell jobs. I worked up until the week my baby was born. Our two checks came to $135 a week which is more than my dad makes now.

We've been married four years and are still in love. We have two darling sons and a cute little house. All our relatives said our marriage would never last but they were wrong.

So why don't you get off your broom and quit knocking teen-age marriages? They can work. — LIVING PROOF.

Dear Living: Congratulations and best wishes. You are exceptions and there undoubtedly are other exceptions. But if you think I'm going to advise 16-year-old girls to get pregnant so their parents will be forced to let them marry, you're sadly mistaken.

Now that you are a mother, may I ask you a question? How would you like it if your 16-year-old son came home one day and said, "I'm quitting high school to get married. My girl friend is pregnant."

Think about this before you advise kids to make the biggest decision of their lives before they are dry behind the ears.

No Answer

Dear Ann: Recently you printed a letter from a woman who said a housewife's lot is easier than her husband's because she could always "put things off."

I'd like to know how she puts off making three meals a day when her family expects to get fed. How can she put off driving her children to school and picking them up? When her mother-in-law must be taken to the dentist for an emergency extraction, how does she put that off?

When the children are sick, how does she put off giving them medicine every four hours? And if the doll has any bright ideas on how to put off a husband with an amorous gleam in his eye even though she is dead to the world, I'd like to have that information, too.

Me — I don't know any of these answers.— TEXARKANA DUMBBELL.

-:-

Dear Tex: Neither do I, so I guess that makes me a Chicago Dumbbell.

Freckle Phobia

Dear Ann: I am a girl 17 years old and a senior in high school. I have eight million freckles and I hate every one of them. In addition to this handicap, when I was 14 I had acne which left me with deep pits on my cheeks and chin.

I have a nice figure, pretty red hair and fairly good features. It's my skin that makes me unattractive. Mother says I'm exaggerating all this in my mind and I'm really lovely looking. I'm beginning to think I have a face only a mother could love. Can you suggest help? — MARGIE.

Dear Margie: There is help available to you and I hope you will seek it.

Ask your doctor about a process called abrasive planing. It should be done by a skin specialist. This will remove your freckles and acne scars. But more important, it will give you the psychological lift you need.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

South Side Club Has Nominations

The South Side Athletic Club Tuesday night held nominations for election of officers and heard a report that the club and its seven districts are in good financial shape.

Daniel Wright, secretary, said a special meeting will be held Oct. 16 at 8 p. m. at South Side American Legion Post 952 near Hookstown for the election.

He said all social members holding a 1962 membership are eligible to vote. The nominating committee is made up of the club's Executive Board and Board of Directors. The vote will be by secret ballot.

He said the seven districts reported total cash of $1,235.85 and outstanding debts of $349.75, leaving a balance of $886.10 at the end of the present club year.

John Nash, club treasurer, reported a balance of $114.08. Bills of $35 were paid.

William (Bud) Green, president, presided. All districts were present except Shippingport. The next regular meeting will be announced by the newly - elected officers.

Deepening The River

EASTMAN, Que. (AP) — Work has begun on a $300,000 public works project to lower the level of Silver Lake near here, by deepening the river that drains it. Glen Brown, Quebec legislature member, says the project will reclaim between 5,000 and 10,000 acres and halt spring floods.

Rhodes Declares Industry Being Lured From Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Back in the capital briefly after campaign talks at both ends of the state, Republican gubernatorial candidate James A. Rhodes warned today about industry being lured from Ohio.

The GOP candidate said other states, with aggressive industrial expansion plans, are diverting new industries to their communities and attracting industries away from Ohio.

He accused the administration of his opponent, Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, of failing to keep Ohio's economy strong. Rhodes emphasized again his contention that Ohio has lost 183,000 jobs since the 1957 employment peak.

It's Rhodes' opinion that the state needs a New Jobs and Industrial Development Authority to attract new industries and expand existing ones. He has been critical of the existing Department of Industrial and Economic Development.

Building Old Village

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — A village of the 1800's is to be built during the coming decade at nerby Bath, with the Western Reserve Historical Society directing the project. The society will acquire buildings erected between 1810 and 1840 and move them to the village. Antiques will be assembled to furnish the village, which will be located on a 176-acre farm in the Cuyahoga River valley.

Poor Teaching May Cause Bad Spelling

An occasional child has trouble with spelling because he does not see well, but most others have never learned the simple basic sounds of letters and letter-combinations. Many a poor speller has never learned to study the correct spelling of a word while looking at it. He makes many mistakes while trying to learn its spelling. Also, when he writes he tends to guess at the spelling of a word. He has no passion for precision; he has a poor spelling conscience.

Dr. Garry Meyers

THE PREVAILING method of teaching spelling, especially beyond the second or third grade, contributes toward making and repeating errors in spelling. In the teacher's manual on spelling and in method books on teaching spelling, the teacher is told: "Have the child look at the word, pronounce it, and give or get its meaning; then spell it once while looking right at it; then have him look away and spell it from memory aloud or write it."

Here is the seat of the trouble. Having spelled the word only once while looking at it, he may spell it wrong even the first time he tries it out. And if he writes it from memory, having seen and named its letters in right order only once, he may write it wrong. Indeed, he often does.

What is overlooked is that wrongs tend to stick as surely as rights. The problem is to prevent any errors.

—:—

SOME DAY THE normal method book will read: "Have the child look carefully at the word (whose meaning you may help him get), pronounce it and spell it while looking carefully at it. Have him repeat this whole performance three or more times before looking away from it or writing it from memory."

It might be well for him to write it while looking at it but not too soon from memory.

I know of no studies aiming to ascertain the optimal number of repetitions of the pronounciation and spelling of the word necessary before trying it out. Certainly several are desirable.

Regardless of how your child is taught spelling at school you could, if skillful, win his cooperation in studying words more carefully; help him at home to cultivate good habits in learning to spell.

My bulletin, "Home Help for Poor Spellers," may be had by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Post Pushes Remodeling

Wellsville American Legion Post 70 has retained Robert F. Beatty as architect to prepare plans for remodeling the lower section of the post home.

The entire upper section has been razed. It was destroyed by fire several weeks ago. Beatty will prepare two or three alternate plans. Construction will begin immediately after the plans are accepted.

Lawrenceville Post 163 will hold a "Post 70 Night" Friday, Sept. 28, to help raise funds for the Wellsville unit. Dick Golden's orchestra will play for the dance. The committee includes Harry Excell, Ralph Donaldson and Jerome Gitschier.

William Powell, commander, has named William Whitaker chairman of a committee to plan a turkey shoot. His committee includes Don Brewer, Earl Leughmyer, George Lawton, Emil Cataldo and Herman Liberatore.

This is Constitution Week and Powell asked that each member review the amendments to the document.

Francis House, adjutant, said Post 70 will utilize the Post 374 home in East End to host the meeting of the Columbiana County American Legion Council Oct. 12.

Lisbon Driver Unhurt In Salem Sideswiping

Harley R. Groff, 27, of Lisbon R. D. 1 was headed north, passing an auto driven by John N. Weber, 54, of Salem when the latter pulled out to pass another vehicle officers said.

Weber was charged with changing lanes without due caution. Damage was estimated at $250 to each auto.

Mississippi Seeks To Avert Integration

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — Mississippi authorities seek a last-ditch solution to avert integration of the University of Mississippi.

A Negro war veteran, James Howard Meredith, 29, stands ready to try to enter the all-white school under a federal court order.

It would bring a showdown in the bitter struggle between state and federal authorities.

No Negro ever has attended the 114-year-old institution.

IRON FIREMAN CUSTOM Mark II OIL FURNACE

- An oil flame that starts clean and stays clean.
- No soot from your chimney or in your home.
- Owners report they save one gallon of oil out of three.
- Elimination of soot and carbon means trouble-free operation.
- Provides its own combustion air flow —no chimney draft needed.
- Thermostat-controlled heat is even and steady.

Iron Fireman CUSTOM Mark II firing revolutionizes oil heating. There's no soot or smoke with resulting fuel waste. The flame starts clean and stays clean. Unequalled indoor comfort due to short, frequent, thermostat controlled firing periods. The CUSTOM Mark II furnace is years ahead in oil heating. See for yourself.

Junior Editors Quiz on INDIANS

QUESTION: What is the origin of the totem pole?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Totem poles were the work of the northwestern Indians such as the Chinooks of the Columbia River in Washington, the Haida of the Queen Charlotte Islands of British Columbia and the Tlingit of southeastern Alaska. These Indians led more settled lives than others. They caught so many salmon that they had much leisure. With abundant wood close by, they built cedar plank houses and spent much time in feasting and elaborate ritual ceremonies. They developed a special art of wood carving. Each house had a pole in tront. The purpose of these poles was to tell the history of the people who lived there. The strange figures are "totems," that is, figures which represent the animals connected with the family. Almost all primitive people were in the habit of selecting animals to be sacred to the groups called "clans." If you belonged to the wolf clan, the wolf would be your totem and you would not harm a real wolf. You would not marry a wolf woman. Suppose you married a killer-whale woman. Then you'd carve the symbols of wolf and killer whale on your totem pole.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: We show some totem animals at the bottom of our picture. Select one of these for you totem (or invent one of your own.) Then draw it on a big sheet and color it as the totem pole Indians did, in bold blue. orange and black. It will look fine on your wall.

Hamlin Report Discussed At Cancer Society Session

Louis Moushey of Salem, president of the Columbiana County Unit of the American Cancer Society, said the Hamlin report, concerning recommendations for voluntary health and welfare agencies, was discussed at the meeting of the state society volunteers over the weekend in Akron.

Dr. W. J. Flynn of Youngstown, state president, told the group the Hamlin report, financed by the Rockefeller Foundation, documents a three-year study by Dr. Robert Hamlin and was published in 1961.

"The report pays tribute to the contributions of voluntary agencies but also sums up most of the criticisms that have been made of them over recent years.

"Too often, the report does not distinguish enough between agencies and tends to give the impression that the charges made apply to all voluntary agencies.

"The report indicates respect for the American Cancer Society because it notes that the society and the American Heart Association in 1958 expended more than half of the $30 million disbursed by national voluntary agencies for medical research.

"It also points out that the society's organizational structure of national, state division and county unit provides for strong supervision of cancer control programs," Dr. Flynn said.

Speaking on the two major recommendations of the Hamlin report, Dr. Flynn said they were: "Appointment of a five-year National Commission on Voluntary Health and Welfare Agencies, and Development of Uniform Accounting and Financial Reporting.

He said the voluntary agencies, through the National Health Council, composed of 75 national organizations including the American Cancer Society, are following through on both recommendations and in fact, started action before the Hamlin Report was published.

Moushey said Mrs. Audrey Newtz of East Liverpool, who was elected to the state trustees, will begin her two-year term next month.

Mrs. Jane Calhoun of Lisbon will begin serving as executive secretary of the county unit Oct. 1, by which time the headquarters will have been established in Lisbon. They are in East Liverpool at present.

Mobile X-Ray Schedule Set By Hancock's TB League

The schedule for the annual visit to Hancock County of a mobile X-ray unit has been completed by the County Tuberculosis League, one of the sponsoring groups.

The unit is brought to the county each year to provide free X-rays under sponsorship by the league, the State Health Department and the County Health Department.

The equipment will be at Chester City Hall Oct. 2 from 9 a. m. to noon, and in Weirton at the Longo Building Oct. 3 from 9 a. m. to noon and 1 to 4 p. m., Oct. 4 from 1 to 4 and 6 to 9 p. m. and Oct. 5 from 9 a. m. to noon.

The County TB League also provides free X-rays at a Health Clinic in New Cumberland Monday week from 9 a. m. to noon and 1 to 3 p. m.

At the league's meeting Friday in Weirton, Mrs. Richard Staley, registered nurse, reported that 317 X-rays were taken at the clinic in June, July and August. Three persons were admitted to sanitariums and one was discharged.

Plans were discussed for the Christmas Seal sales campaign, opening Nov. 13. Mrs. Leon Albert is Weirton chairman, Mrs. F. N. Richmond, Chester; Mrs. James Raimond, Newell; Mrs. Earle Bell, New Cumberland, and Mrs. Paul Wern, Pughtown. Mrs. C. E. Stetson of Weirton is bond chairman, Mrs. William R. Ball is in charge of street solicitation, and Mrs. John A. Jones, advanced gifts.

Mrs. John Bender is delegate to the annual meeting of the state Tuberculosis and Health Association Oct. 10-11 in Beckley. Mrs. Robert S. Meighen is state secretary.

East End Post Opens Home For Wellsville Unit

American Legion Post 374 Monday night voted to allow Wellsville Post 70 to use the East End home for hosting a meeting of the Columbiana County American Legion Council Friday, Oct. 12.

The post home at Wellsville was destroyed by fire several weeks ago.

Thirty - five attended. Ted Nusser was accepted as a new member. A report was heard on the county council meeting Friday at Post 4.

James Cregar, commander, presided. Cregar is the delegate to the national convention at Las Vegas, Nev., and the post voted him $100 to help defray expenses.

Rodney Stull reported on the county bowling league. There will be 15 teams. The league opens play Oct. 7.

The post trustees will meet Monday night at 7, followed by the regular meeting at 8. The post purchased a membership in the Blue and White Nonpareil Club.

Great Britain, Brazil, and Switzerland all used postage stamps for mailing letters before the United States.

Crowd Helped Out

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Firemen usually frown when throngs of curious spectators collect where there's fire-fighting work to be done. But the crowds made Fire Chief Fred Bowser happy at a big lumber company fire here recently. He put scores of the sightseers to work dragging heavy hoses more than 100 yards into the lumber yards, then thanked them on a loudspeaker for cooperating.

Glenmoor Parents Form Club To Sponsor 'Teen Hops'

Formation of a Glenmoor Teen-Timers Club to conduct "Teen Hops" every other Saturday at the Glenmoor fire station was completed at a meeting of community residents Monday night.

A set of rules governing the club was adopted and will be enforced by a teen - age committee to be selected at the first dance Sept. 29. Martin Christen, chairman, presided.

Dances will be every other Saturday from 7:30 to 10:30 p. m. and will be limited to those from 12 to 19 years old. Dues will be 15 cents per person or 25 cents per couple when entering the building together.

Club rules provide that teenagers will not be permitted to leave the building and re-enter except in case of an emergency. Those leaving prior to 10:30 p.m. will be required to sign their name and time of departure and their parents will be contacted.

No intoxicating beverages will be permitted and teen-agers will be suspended for three weeks for using loud and profane language, fighting, leaving the building without permission or disobeying rules established by the teen-age committee.

At least three parents will serve as chaperones each night the club holds a dance. Children automatically will be suspended if a parent refuses three times to act as a chaperone, the committee decided.

The organ has been recognized as preeminently the musical instrument of the church since about the 4th or 5th century.

Hamlin Report Discussed At Cancer Society Session

Louis Moushey of Salem, president of the Columbiana County Unit of the American Cancer Society, said the Hamlin report, concerning recommendations for voluntary health and welfare agencies, was discussed at the meeting of the state society volunteers over the weekend in Akron.

Dr. W. J. Flynn of Youngstown, state president, told the group the Hamlin report, financed by the Rockefeller Foundation, documents a three-year study by Dr. Robert Hamlin and was published in 1961.

"The report pays tribute to the contributions of voluntary agencies but also sums up most of the criticisms that have been made of them over recent years.

"Too often, the report does not distinguish enough between agencies and tends to give the impression that the charges made apply to all voluntary agencies.

"The report indicates respect for the American Cancer Society because it notes that the society and the American Heart Association in 1958 expended more than half of the $30 million disbursed by national voluntary agencies for medical research.

"It also points out that the society's organizational structure of national, state division and county unit provides for strong supervision of cancer control programs," Dr. Flynn said.

Speaking on the two major recommendations of the Hamlin report, Dr. Flynn said they were: "Appointment of a five-year National Commission on Voluntary Health and Welfare Agencies, and Development of Uniform Accounting and Financial Reporting.

He said the voluntary agencies, through the National Health Council, composed of 75 national organizations including the American Cancer Society, are following through on both recommendations and in fact, started action before the Hamlin Report was published.

Moushey said Mrs. Audrey Newtz of East Liverpool, who was elected to the state trustees, will begin her two-year term next month.

Mrs. Jane Calhoun of Lisbon will begin serving as executive secretary of the county unit Oct. 1, by which time the headquarters will have been established in Lisbon. They are in East Liverpool at present.

The County TB League also provides free X-rays at a Health Clinic in New Cumberland Monday week from 9 a. m. to noon and 1 to 3 p. m.

At the league's meeting Friday in Weirton, Mrs. Richard Staley, registered nurse, reported that 317 X-rays were taken at the clinic in June, July and August. Three persons were admitted to sanitariums and one was discharged.

Crowd Helped Out

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Firemen usually frown when throngs of curious spectators collect where there's fire-fighting work to be done. But the crowds made Fire Chief Fred Bowser happy at a big lumber company fire here recently. He put scores of the sightseers to work dragging heavy hoses more than 100 yards into the lumber yards, then thanked them on a loudspeaker for cooperating.
